Spider-Cunt gets turned into a meal

After a bullshit match Lady Loki returns to her room to unwind (and maybe destroy some things) “ That fucking spider-bastard always ruins everything for me EVERY FUCKING TIME” she roared at the top of her lungs “just when i was about take point, here that bastard comes and pulls me off point” she complained as she was thinking of ideas to get rid of him permanently.

“ Oh that’s genius” she said “i’ll just fucking eat him, that way he’ll atleast be usefull for once” she said smirking, she waited till he was alone and snuck up hit him on the head with her staff knocking him out cold “now the fun part is almost here” she said as she picked him up and took him to her run and tied him up with magic.

“Ugh where the hell am i” Peter groaned, “why my room of course” said a feminine voice he knew all too well “Loki what the hell do you want” he said annoyed thinking it was another trick by Loki to mess with him.

“Why revenge for the last match of course” she said with spite in her voice, "you're still mad about that it was fucking hours ago” he said surprised that she was still mad about it “everytime you’re on my team you’re fucking useless but when you’re on the enemy team you suddenly become fucking competent, so yes im still mad about it”.

“so what are you gonna do torture me, make relive my worst moments, go ahead nothing i haven’t faced brefore” he said confidently, “oh im not gonna tourture you” Loki said as she began undressing “im gonna devour you” she said as she stood before him in a bra and underwear “ im gonna melt you in my stomach and i am gonna enjoy every second of you’re torment, no matter how much you beg and plead for you’re life i’m not gonna let you go until you’re fat on my royal fucking ass” Loki said as she gave it a smack.

Peter was too stunned to speak, “did she say that she was gonna eat me, like swallow me whole like some food” he was so lost in thought he didn’t even Loki grab him by the shoulders, he only noticed when she put his head in her mouth and swallowed hard bringing his midriff to her lips.

“Loki come on you can’t do this” he said but as Loki told him earlier that no matter the begging or pleading will help him, as he's thinking of how to get out of this situation Loki took another heavy “GULP” and swallowing up to his kneecaps.

“By Fathers name it feels good to get this fucking nuisance down my throat” Loki thought as she swallowed up to his feet.

“Come on Parker, think THINK how do i get out” Peter was screaming internally trying to come up with a plan on how to get out but before he could think up a plan he felt a contraction at his legs which was in Loki’s throat.

“And with this the last part of this fucking nuisance will be sealed in my stomach” as she swallowed down the last part of the spider-nuisance, “gotta say i have enjoyed this mr.parker but i’ll it enjoy it even more when you’re fat on my royal ASS” she said mocking him.

Peter began struggling, that's all he could think of doing now that he was fully in Loki's stomach, “OHH YEAH KEEP STRUGGLING YOU FUCKING BITCH” Loki said while moaning lika a whore “while this feels really good if you’re goal is to get out before you’re fucking digested you’ll have to try way harder than that” Loki said mocking his efforts.

As the struggling started to ramp up loki had a idea “you know i think i know how to make this feel even better” she said as she unhooked her bra and started squeezing one of her tits, “OHH THIS FEELS SO FUCKING GOOD” she moaned.

Although it did not feel good for Peter as he was nearly fully covered in stomach acid “Loki please let me out” he begged but he wasn’t heard as Loki was moaning to loud to be heard, as his last plea was ignored he fully gave all hope of getting out and simply sunk into the stomach acid.

“ohh finally melted did you, now comes the real fun part” she said as her stomach started shrinking and her ass started getting bigger and soon her stomach was flat again and her ass was fatter than ever, “you must be honored to go from a worthless mortal to being fat on the queen of Asgard's ass” said Loki but then she felt her stomach rumble and something started coming up her throat and with a wet “BURP” a skull and an acid stained mask landed on the floor, “well what’s this a souvenir and some useless fabric, how thoughtful” she said as she rubbed her flat stomach, "I wonder if Mantis will like the changes” Loki said a she left the skull on her floor as she went to have some fun with Mantis.
