

PROLOGUE

The door of the bedroom opened, letting in a couple of people inside of the room. One was a fox with fur that was red and white. The other, was a very particular renamon. She had black and white fur, eyes and nose of a very intense green color like the pads of her hands and feet. What really could catch attention, was the huge furry tail she possesses, whose color pattern could remember the same colors of a skunk, having the top of her tail in green. She was only wearing two big gloves of green color, with it contained the symbol of biohazard on it, the same green symbol she had in her thighs. The fox was taking off his clothes while she was talking with the renamon.

“You know, today was a fantastic night, Acid” He said while he was taking off his pants.

“Ohh, and it is going to be a lot better, hun” She said looking at the fox at the same time that she licked her muzzle. “I can promise to you that this is going to be something you won't never forget. But you have to be pretty obedient if you wanna have fun with me”

“Hehehehe, I'll be veeeeery good” He took off his shirt. “I'll do whatever you want just to see that butt of yours closer”

“Fufufufu, you should be careful about what you say about my... rump” The renamon took a step closer to the fox, while she rubbed her buttocks with one hand. “It could be pretty dangerous... to you”

“Nahhh... I've dated with skunkettes before. This is going to be piece of cake”

“Then I'm pretty sure you are going to know the true meaning of terror” Though the renamon looking and her beautiful and gorgeous rear. “Awwww, you are very brave indeed. Ok, I take your word and if you are not able to fulfill it... I'll punish you”

The both laughed for some minutes until the fox finished his unclothing. Then the renamon turn around and while winking at him, she raised her tail showing her whole rump to the fox.

“Myuuu, now be a good boy and kneel”

“Yes, my mistress.” He kept laughing while he kneeled.

“Very goooood, now...” She crouched a bit revealing all her attributes. “I want you to come closer to my anus... and you must give it the biggest kiss of your life”

“Ohhh, I'm sure I'll do”

He came close in his four, moving slowly. The vision of that green anus and pussy made him be pretty hypnotized. When his face was pretty near to the rear of the renamon, he placed his hands in her buttocks and made it spread to see better that big and sexy anus, at the time that he prepared to kiss it. Then it happened. It appeared that everything was moving in slow motion, when the fox saw how that anus shook a bit, before opening. From that rear, it sprang an incredible green cloud, knocking the fox's face like a punch would do and making him to fall in his back, followed by the most terrible and stinky smell. Just when the fox tried to breath, he felt like his lungs were breathing pure and toxic poison.

“WHAT THE... EEEEEWWW... WHAT IS THIS!?”

The renamon didn't reply. Slowly, she grinned nastily as she felt something huge coming closer to her butt. Giggling evilly and clenching her butt, that anus exploded a more huge cloud of smell that engulfed the fox and the whole room.

“Nnng... PFFFFFFFRRRT Awwww, it was a tiny one. I was hoping for a huge one”

The eyes of the fox cried painfully, and the smell was even worse than before, putrid and rancid. When the fox could see something, he realized that the renamon was become huge and big compared to him.

“Fufufufufu, now you are really at the perfect size for playing, hun” She said smiling with evil look. “You see... I can shrink people with my stink. I pretty useful skill I may add.”

She grabbed him with her fingers and put him close to her face. The fox panicked when the renamon licked her lips very nasty and evil, as drops of saliva covered her muzzle.

“And since you broke your word, I suppose I have to give you some punishment”

The renamon lifted the fox above her mouth and opened it. He could see the inner entrance to the girl's body and struggled a lot. Acid just simply let him fall from there, landing in her green mouth. The renamon then closed her mouth and for some seconds she played with him using her tongue. When she got bored, Acid just closed her eyes and placing some fingers in her throat, she gulped down slowly feeling with her fingers the movement of the fox being swallowed. Her other hand, was placed in her belly, rubbing it, knowing that soon it will be filled with some delicious “food”. When the fox reached her stomach, she let out a small burp of pure satisfaction.

“UUUARRP Mmmmm, what a tasty meal. You better don't waste your time trying to fight or pleading me to let you out. Right now, my acids and toxins are working on you, decomposing your whole existence so my body can absorb you. Any last words, hun?”

“GUURGLE Mmmph... BLOORK Mmmph... help...” Where the only sounds that she could hear.

“Hehehe, yeeees. Everybody says the same.” Said the vile renamon smiling. She layed on bed, still hearing the digestive sounds of her stomach. “Any way, I'm going to sleep hun. Today I had a pretty hard day, so enjoy being absorbed into my body. But before leaving... let's give this room a better atmosphere...”

When she covered herself with the veld, the renamon unleashed again a huge and powerful stream of smell that covered the whole room with a deep and green stench cloud.

“Mmmm... PFFFFFFRRRRRT yeah, much better. Pure toxicity and sweet poison...” Said Acid closing her eyes.

Several hours later, Acidrenamon was deep sleeping. However that night, something nobody could expect happened while she was absorbing what was left of the fox. As she moved in dreams, the fur of her tail rubbed the nose of the renamon and made her to sneeze. Inside her, the toxins of her organism reacted violently, as massive amount of energy flooded without control. As she was sleeping, she could not realize that until the morning. Like any other day, when she woke up and stretched her arms, she went to the bathroom to take a nice shower. It was then, when she looked to herself at the mirror, she saw that her gloves were broken and ripped.

“Myuu... but what happened?” She said with sorrow in her voice. “My gloves...”

She tried to take them out but it was hard, the gloves were pretty tight. Several minutes later when she finally decided to break them whole, she observed the pieces of the fabric that were her gloves before.

“It must shrank as time passes... what a shame, I really liked those gloves. I guess I should buy a new pair”

A tear appeared on her eyes. That were indeed her favorite gloves and the feeling of having them turned into pieces was pretty bad for her. However, when she cleaned her eyes with the broken gloves, a piece of fabric touched her nose, and she sneezed again.

“Ahhh... ahhhh... ¡ACHOOO! Mmmm... ohhh... what... awwww... what it is this... mmmmm... feeling...” She said as she felt something incredible good inside her body through her veins. She started to moan in intense showing her green tongue out. “Awwwww... it... feels... yeah... fucking goooooood...”

At the time she looked at her reflection, Acid was surprised as she saw how she was growing in front of herself. Her whole body slowly grew and grew and it looked like it was not going to stop. In just one minute, Acidrenamon doubled her whole size, leaving her pretty astonished.

“Oh my... I grew, I really grew! But this is impossible, my stink makes people shrink, not to make myself bigger. This can be real... it could be because I cried? No, I don't think so... and what if...?”

She looked at the pieces of fabric and took them. She sniffed the fabric deeply several times but nothing happened. Then she realized that before she started to grow, she sneezed. She tickled herself with the top of her tail until she sneezed again. The feeling came again and Acid could see her body to grow again. The feeling was tremendously enjoyable, she really was enjoying it to the maximum level, until her head knocked the ceiling of the room. The good thing was that she already stopped her growing, the bad thing her new size was totally huge compared with the space of the room.

“I can't believe it! Myuuuuuu!” She said happily. “I can grow! And if i use my own stench on me... nng... PFFFFFFFRRRRRRTT Yay! I can get back to my normal size. I can't believe it, now I can control my own size, this is great!”

She was pretty amazed by this discovering and soon an idea come to her head.

“I wonder... how big i can...”

Without losing time, she went outside of her house. Fortunately, she lived in a small house hidden in corner of a street surrounded by trees. Making sure nobody was there, she repeated the operation with her tail and making herself to sneeze two times. When she reached the size she had in the bathroom, she sneezed a third time. This time the feeling took more time, and she closed her eyes for enjoyment. When she felt, that her body stoped growing she opened her eyes. In front of her, the building looked so small compared to her now huge size. The roof of the building was at the same level that her boobs and she could look at it perfectly with just looking down.

“Wooohhh... I became soooo big... This new skill is going to give lots of fun.”

She tried to sneeze again but her body remained at that size. She keep trying until she finally accepted that this size of her was the limit of how much she could grow.

“Mmmm well, never mind. I still have plans for this skill... for the moment I need to experiment more with it until I'm sure this is not temporary. And if it is not...” A nasty smile appeared in the mouth of the renamon. “Something tells me I'm going to put my foul stench into new highs... literally”
