A thick haze seemed to hang in the forest air as the afternoon sun poked through the trees, more than enough to light up the hilly earth but not enough to dry up the oppressive humidity. More than a little removed from the beaten path, two female travelers made their way through the somewhat dense vegetation as they searched for any evidence of a trail.

"I'm starting to think that this shortcut wasn't such a good idea..." the rear traveler, a petite human named Cheng, voiced aloud. Her naturally olive skin was suntanned even beyond its usual shade, and her dark brown, almost black hair was tied in a cute ponytail behind her head. Already starting to sweat a bit, Cheng huffed with exertion as she followed her companion in climbing over a rotten log. Her outfit was simple and utilitarian, consisting of a crop top and short shorts that exposed most of her slender, almost unnaturally thin body. This, coupled with her short height, made her appear quite small.

"Do you see anything up ahead, Umi?" Cheng asked her companion, grabbing onto the satchel slung around her body and craning her head to get a look over the shrubbery that was as tall as she was.

"I think there's a trail up ahead..." Umi, Cheng's elven traveling companion, began in response. "But it's not the one we were looking for. I don't know where it might lead." Umi was a bit taller than Cheng, but only barely. Her wavy, medium-length hair complimented her huge, round-spectacled glasses, giving her the appearance of a scholar or perhaps a wizard. Dressed cutely in an unbuttoned short-sleeve blouse with a frilly top underneath, Umi looked perfectly in her element. Down below, she wore what was once a large, multicolored skirt, having since been slashed to allow her more freedom of movement. An ornate staff radiated with a subtle magic energy as it sat strapped to her back.

"W-Well, what should we do?" Cheng asked over the sound of the twigs breaking beneath their feet, holding her bag tightly. "We can't just keep wandering around... who knows what else is in these woods?"

"Wait!" Umi suddenly exclaimed as they reached the trail in question. "Look!" the elf pointed down at the dirt, at a series of huge footprints interspersed with much smaller ones. "A party's been though here... a big one. These tracks look fresh!"

"Weh, how can you tell?" Cheng asked with disbelief. "Well... what kind of a party was it?"

"Probably goblins," Umi added with a little shrug. "They're common around here. Looks like they've got some pretty big pack animals, too, so they must be on the move."

"G-Goblins?" Cheng began, taking a step back. "Umm... that sounds... kinda scary."

"Let's go, Cheng!" Umi urged with a smile as she took off jogging in the direction of the footsteps. "If we can catch up to them, I'm sure they'll take us to town!"

"H-Hold on, Umi!" Cheng began, before taking off after her elven friend. "Wait for me!"

It wasn't easy for Cheng to keep up with the elf's natural quickness, but she somehow managed. Umi's theory was confirmed when the two caught up to a large party of traveling goblins. They were short and stocky, scantily dressed but otherwise quite cute.

Accompanying them were a group of massive, hulking pack lizards. The huge reptiles walked like dinosaurs on two powerful legs with humongous tails swinging behind them, a multitude of luggage strapped to their backs. Their arms were lifted by their sides as they slowly walked alongside the goblins, each one with a chubby belly gently bouncing with each step. Some of their mouths hung agape, panting from the humidity as heavy blobs of drool dripped from their slimy tongues.

"Ooh, this is perfect!" Umi cheered quietly as she grasped Cheng's hand. "They can certainly show us the way to town~!"

"U-Umi!" Cheng began, blushing heavily as her voice began to quiver. "They're goblins! They're dangerous... wh-what if something happens to us?"

"Well, then we'll just respawn nearby and try again, won't we?" Umi said with a wink. "Come on, don't be scared~"

"But we don't even have anything to offer them!" Cheng insisted. "...Do we?"

"Eheh~" Umi teased, winking at Cheng as she gave her hips a little shake. "Just leave that to me! Beast folk like these only have one thing on their minds, anyway..."

"O-Okay..." Cheng reluctantly agreed. "Just leave me out of it! These guys scare me..."

"You can count on me!" Umi cheered, before running up behind the traveling goblins, who hadn't noticed them yet. "Hey! Hey you!" she yelled.

The goblins all turned around at once, and the pack lizards stopped a second later. A goblin much larger than the rest of them - the obvious leader - walked to the rear of the pack, closest to Umi, and crossed his arms in front of his bare chest as he glared at her. "What do you want?" he bellowed.

"I don't suppose you boys would be so kind as to show me the way to town, would you?" Umi began as she sensuously unbuttoned her blouse. "I don't have much to offer you... except for my body, if you'll have me~" the elf teased as she lifted one side of her now unbuttoned blouse. At some point, she had inconspicuously removed the top she was wearing underneath, leaving her breast totally exposed to the goblins in front of her. Umi began to blush heavily, her hands shaking from excitement.

A chorus of murmurs spread throughout the goblins. Their leader gave a huge grin as his loincloth slowly began to lift, obviously excited by the sight of the bared elf flesh.

"You've got yourself a deal, lady!" he barked, and the goblins rushed toward her.

Umi giggled affectionately as the goblins, each of which was only about half of her size, slowly began to crowd her. One grabbed her by the hand and led her to the side of the road. The others began to snicker as they indiscriminately began to grope her, the excitement rapidly spreading among them.

Umi allowed the goblins to push her onto the ground up against the side of a hill so that her entire body was accessible to them. The little travelers were hornier than she'd expected, and she watched their loincloths lift up one by one, only to be removed. The elf quickly found herself surrounded by green goblin penises of varying levels of erection as they moved into position, each trying to figure out how best to take advantage of the willing prey.

Despite only being half the size of the average elf, goblin cocks were about the same size as elves', a fact that Umi quickly remembered as the little beasts moved in on her. One by one they began to pull at her clothes, pulling them off just enough to get at her silky, nubile body.

Umi moaned with excitement as one of the goblins climbed and began to kiss her, pressing his lips against hers and invading her mouth with his tongue. At the same time, another buried his face in her breasts before beginning to lick and suck on her rapidly stiffening nipples. The elf reached down in-between his legs and wrapped her slender fingers around his scrotum. It had already descended from the excitement and had undoubtedly begun to ready his seed. The thought sent a surge of arousal through the eager elf's body.

Off to the side, Cheng began to shiver as she watched the lewd orgy unfold. As scared as she was, she couldn't deny how much fun it looked like Umi was having, and she soon found herself getting hot and bothered as well...

Just then, Cheng was snapped back into reality by the heavy footsteps of an approaching pack lizard. Based on its sheath, she could tell it was a male, but unlike the humanoid goblins, the beast didn't seem interested in its natural urges. Rather, it looked hungry.

"Umm... h-hey there, big guy..." Cheng stammered as the hulking lizard towered over her, staring down at her with hungry yellow eyes. Her eyes slowly traveled down from its face to its pudgy belly, from where a chorus of muffled rumbles were emanating.

"Hey, your tummy-" Cheng began, but was suddenly cut off as a hot blob of slime splattered onto her head from up above. The surprise was enough to knock her down onto her ass, causing her to yelp. When Cheng looked up, the beast was not only still staring intently at her, but was now also drooling freely. As its tongue snaked out of its mouth and ran over its scaly lips, more saliva dripped out of its mouth and onto Cheng, who shuddered with each warm drop that touched her body.

"Umm..." Cheng began as she nervously began to back away from the giant lizard, crawling as she was too nervous to stand up. Yet the beast refused to let her go, moving along with her so that it was directly over top of her no matter where she tried to go.

Then, before she could stand up, the beast bent down and started to hungrily lick her over, slathering her with sticky spit as it dragged its fleshy tongue all over her body. Cheng whimpered as the pack lizard licked her, feeling its saliva cover every inch of her body as its hot breath invaded all her senses.

Just then, Cheng's attention was drawn to the beast's stomach, which had begun to anxiously groan louder than before. Oh, no... Cheng thought, her chest seizing with fear as she realized what was happening. He's looking at me like food... and now he's tasting me to decide if he wants to eat me!

"U-Umi..." Cheng cried as she turned towards her friend, only for the lizard's tongue to smack against her back and knock her face-first into the ground. Up ahead, a few of the goblins watched her, snickering with amusement but otherwise doing nothing to intervene. The rest of them were far too occupied with Umi, whose attention was likewise busy with her own unfolding debauchery.

Umi, meanwhile, had begun to huff with excitement as the goblins started to pull and tug at her pants, eager to get in-between her legs at her prized honeypot. Both of her hands were occupied stroking separate goblins to life, enjoying the feeling of their warm bodies in her fingers as their cocks grew and throbbed in her hands. Suddenly, a goblin that had been standing a little higher up on the hill roughly grabbed her by the hair and forced her face into his crotch. Umi moaned as she felt her cheek and the side of her nose pushed up against the side of his stiff manhood, the goblin's fingers running across her other cheek as if trying to coax her lips to wrap around the tip of his cock.

Umi obediently opened her mouth and began to lick at the base of the goblin's shaft. He had a warm, meaty, slightly salty taste to him, and it didn't take long for his natural musk to utterly consume her senses. Reaching up, she wrapped her fingers around his cock and slid it into her mouth, letting its pulsating head slide across her tongue as the eager goblin began to buck his hips back and forth.

Umi had just begun to enjoy the taste of the goblin's throbbing cock when a scream echoed throughout the clearing. Off to the side, Cheng was struggling violently as the pack lizard went from tasting her to devouring her. After covering her body in a generous portion of its own saliva, the beast chomped down on her head-first, letting her legs flail about as it hoisted her high into the air. The massive creature started to roughly toss her around in its mouth, letting her body slide deeper into its throat with each bite. Cheng's desperate screams were heavily muffled from inside, especially as its tongue slapped against her and filled her mouth with its saliva, causing her to gag.

Then, as if to dispel any uncertainty about its intentions, the lizard beast started swallowing her whole.

GLUUURK

The wet, throaty gulp echoed throughout the clearing as the wriggling lump descended from the beast's chin and into its throat. Still poking out of its lips, Cheng's feet began to kick with desperation as the beast consumed her whole. Off to the side, the goblins' leader had begun to cheer the pack lizard on with earnest, encouraging it to make short work of the nubile human girl.

"Thata boy!" the goblin cheered, "bottoms up!"

GULLLP

All at once, Cheng disappeared as the squirming lump in the lizard's throat, sliding down into its chest. A few seconds later, a wet squelch could be heard, and the lizard's stomach descended all at once as it filled up with food - one fresh human.

The pack lizard began to lick its lips as its bulging stomach started to squirm. Cheng's horrified screams were just barely audible from the other side of its belly, and were quickly replaced by a thick, low gurgle that began to emanate from where she was trapped. She was done for - she was food.

"Cheng!" Umi began, at once concerned for her friend's well-being. "W-Wait, somebody help Cheng, she- AH!"

Umi was interrupted as a sudden, familiar sensation completely overcame all of her senses. While she was distracted, the goblins had finally managed to get her pants all the way off, ripping her panties off as well and leaving her flower totally exposed. Unable to hold back any longer, one of the goblins immediately mounted her, thrusting his bulging cock into her dripping, ready pussy and bottoming out inside of her.

The elf cried out in pleasure as the goblin, whose head only came up to her chest, began to eagerly pump in and out of her, letting out little huffs of pleasure as it fucked her raw. Immediately after, another goblin grabbed her by the face and roughly shoved his cock back inside of her mouth. Umi sighed. She was being thoroughly used.

Oh, well... she thought to herself in resignation. Cheng will be fine. That lizard beastie looked like he could use some lunch, anyway. I'd just better focus on working these goblins over...

Umi soon forgot about her friend's fate inside of the lizard's stomach as the goblins went to work on her, using every orifice they could get their hands on. The frisky elf was utterly consumed by her own lust as the horny goblins had their way with her, drowning her in a sea of lust and pheromones.

After a few minutes of this, Umi yelped as the goblin in-between her legs buried himself all the way inside of her and stopped. A second later, he let out a howl, and she could feel his cock start to pump.

Oh, he's breeding me~ Umi chuckled as she wiggled her hips, feeling a new, alien warmth spread throughout her loins as the goblin fired off inside of her. Lucky guy! Seconds later, the goblin whose cock she had been working with her free left hand exploded as well, firing off strands of hot, sticky semen that splattered across her exposed chest.

Then, as soon as it happened, they were finished. The goblin fucking her pulled his cock out with a laugh, letting his cum bubble out of her pussy and onto the ground. Another goblin quickly replaced him, burying his warm shaft inside of her for his turn at filling her up. Likewise, the flaccid dick in her hand was quickly replaced by a new, hard one as another goblin expected to be jerked off.

Umi moaned with delight at the company of the horny goblins as they took their turns with her, using her whatever way they wished. The goblin using her mouth buried his meat all the way in, pushing his balls up against her chin. Umi could feel them start to churn and tighten and, sure enough, he came a second later, moaning as he splattered his cum all along the inside of her mouth and against the back of her throat.

Umi began to eagerly swallow, pulling his cum down her throat as she milked his balls for everything they had. He quickly pulled out, only for another goblin to replace him as well. This one took a more direct approach, climbing on top of her to properly face-fuck her. At the same time, she felt the goblin in her pussy fire off again, painting her innards with a fresh coating of cum. He made sure to empty his balls out inside of her before pulling out. This time, he was replaced by two goblins, one fucking her properly and the other one getting underneath of her to penetrate her anus. Umi cried out with delight as meaty goblin cocks invaded her from all angles, her body heat skyrocketing as she became flushed with sexual energy.

Oh YES~ Umi thought as her back arched, her entire body pulsing and throbbing with pure pleasure. She eagerly wrapped her tongue around the goblin's cock as it pushed into her mouth, moaning with glee as she felt it start to pulse a second later, followed by another hot ejaculation right into her throat.

Just as Umi had started to gulp down her second helping of goblin cum, he unexpectedly pulled out and blew the second half of his load on her face, covering her in the warm, sticky substance. Umi pouted playfully as the last rope of cum shout out and onto her face, before eagerly licking the dripping goo off of her lips.

Just as soon as that goblin had finished, Umi felt something tap her on the head as another goblin started to climb on top of her. Staring up in-between its naked legs, Umi was surprised to see a dripping pussy rather than the usual cock and balls.

The elf eagerly opened her mouth and stuck out her tongue as the goblin girl excitedly planted herself on her face and began humping her a second later, gliding her slick vulva across her mouth and nose. The heavy musk of the goblin's fluids overwhelmed her senses once again, practically drowning her in juices as the horny goblin tightened her thighs against the side of her head and humped her mouth, hard.

Before long, the goblin girl came, her vagina visibly twitching as her fluids dripped freely down Umi's cheeks. Rather than pull off, however, Umi was surprised to see the goblin girl lift her hips up for only a few seconds of respite before planting them back twice as hard and face-humping her with renewed vigor.

These lewd scenes continued on for several more minutes as the goblins used and abused her, taking advantage of her orifices as convenient semen receptacles. The orgy could only last for so long, however, and before much longer, the last few goblins with a load to blow had all converged on Umi, huffing as they all sought to finish her off with one last explosion of sexual energy.

That moment came a minute or so later, when the last six or so goblins remaining all seemed to orgasm at once. Umi cried out in ecstasy as she felt her ass and pussy fill up with hot goblin cream, sending her into her own orgasm as they fucked her senseless. Lines of sticky cum splattered across her body, drenching her torso even further. The balls slapping against her chin tightened up against the cock in her mouth, sending another fresh spurt of semen across her tongue and into her throat.

One by one, the goblin's gradually relaxed and pulled away from her, leaving her panting and dripping with cum and sweat. Umi's tongue slid satisfyingly across the rapidly shrinking goblin cock in her mouth one last time, licking off the last of his fluids before he pulled it away from her lips with a plop. When all was said and done, all that was left of Umi was a heaving mess, absolutely drenched bukkake-style with ejaculate.

"Heh, that oughta do it!" a deep, raspy voice came from the side. It was the goblins' oversized leader - the only one who hadn't joined in on the orgy. "Nothin' makes me happier than seein' you elves get put in yer place. Don't ya boys agree?"

All of the goblins grunted and cheered, some of them stroking half-chubs back to their flaccid sizes.

"What do ya think, elf? Had enough?" the leader asked as he slowly approached her, "or do ya think yeh can take one more?"

"Yes, sir!" Umi began excitedly, wiping some of the semen off her face as she eagerly turned to face the goblins' leader.

At the last second, however, she caught a glimpse of the pack lizard from earlier, laying on his side as he licked at his bulging belly.

"Ah!" Umi cried out, suddenly remembering her friend. "Cheng! Uhm... oops..."

"Eh? What'sa matter, elfmeat?" the goblin leader began, before turning to face the pack lizard. "Ah..." he gave a knowing nod as he realized what was going on. "So yeh miss yer friend, eh? Well... how about we take ya right to her?"

The goblins all began to laugh as the leader walked over to Umi and lifted her off the ground. By now, she had wiped much of the semen off of her body, and more still continued to drip off as the goblin carried her towards the lizard. "Huh? W-Wait..." she stammered, "what are you doing?"

"Well, I was jest thinkin'..." the big goblin began, "that one bitch yer size won't be enough to fill 'im up. If we don't feed 'im some more..." he continued, "he'll just be hungry later~"

Umi let out an excited gasp as she realized what was going on. "B-But what about our deal?" she stammered, although, deep down, she knew that she couldn't pass up this exciting new development.

"Oh, don't you worry..." he continued, "I'll make sure these boys find a nice big ditch outside tha city walls to take care of yer in!"

Umi bit her lip. They had been swindled! But somehow, it was all so... satisfying. She couldn't deny it. Besides... Umi thought with resignation, I can't let this big lizard go hungry~! It's not his fault!

By the time the goblin carried Umi over to the pack lizard, she had already resigned herself to becoming its meal. The elf looked down at the massive creature from up above as it started to sniff her legs, shivering as its lips touched her feet. Go on, eat me, baby~ she thought to herself as a smile spread across her face. Eat me up. Swallow me whole. I'm your food, so churn me up in that belly of yours~

The lizard, of course, didn't need anyone to tell it to do so. Deciding she was a suitable addition to its earlier meal, the lizard promptly chomped down on Umi's feet, causing her to gasp in surprise.

Then, the goblin dropped her, but did it in such a way that, rather have her entire body slide right into the pack lizard's mouth, the lizard was able to grab onto her lower half while dropping the rest of her onto the ground. Umi yelped in surprise as her knees slid past its lips at the same time her nude torso hit the ground.

"Oww..." Umi groaned as she looked up from the ground, just in time to see the goblin leader pull off his loincloth and let his massive cock flop out in front of her.

"Yeh didn't think I was gonna let yeh get off so easy, did ya?" the goblin laughed as her began to stroke his member, bringing it to life in his hands. Umi's eyes went wide as she watched his meat slowly rise, quickly engorging itself to twice the size of the smaller goblins' penises.

SHLURP!

Umi cried out in surprised pleasure as the lizard's tongue, unfettered by the lewd activities going on outside, wrapped around its prey's thighs and pulled her deeper into its mouth, pulling her feet past its tonsils and into its throat.

"Ooh, looks like he's gettin' hungry!" The goblin leader barked as he walked over to Umi, whose upper half was still poking out of the lizard's mouth. "Better make this quick, then!"

He yelled as he wrapped his fat fingers around his member and lifted it up, deftly stroking it to an erection. Skipping the formalities, the eager goblin planted himself in front of the lizard and pushed his cock into Umi's face.

Umi gasped as the engorged head of the goblin leader's cock pressed against her cheek, leaving a little blob of precum on her pearly skin and smearing it. The eager elf obediently turned her head and faced her fate by wrapping her lips around that head and taking it into her mouth.

The goblin groaned as he leaned forward, easing his cock into Umi's mouth. The elf moaned in response as her mouth filled up with hot goblin meat, the massive rod sliding across her tongue and pushing against the back of her throat.

Just as Umi was starting to enjoy his taste, however, the goblin went to work, bucking his hips forward and back to rightfully face-fuck her. Umi shut her eyes tight as he used her mouth like a gloryhole, promptly pounding her mouth with regard only for his own pleasure. Saliva started to fly as he railed her. Umi did her best to keep up, eagerly using her mouth to suck the goblin off as her tongue played across the skin of his massive, throbbing member.

Umi cried out in pleased surprise as the eager lizard swallowed her again, taking her thighs into its throat up to her hips. By now, only her head remained outside of its mouth, a fact that the goblin leader took full advantage of as he began to face-fuck her harder and harder. His balls continually slapped against her chin as her pounded in and out of her mouth and bulged out her throat with his goblin meat.

As all of this was going on, one thought persisted in Umi's mind more than anything else: Will he finish before the lizard swallows me whole?

"Ngh... unh!"

Umi got her answer just seconds later when the goblin leader thrust his now fully-erect penis into her throat all the way up to his hilt, so that her nose was pressed into his lower belly. She felt him start to orgasm immediately after as his urethra began to throb against her tongue.

Then, the inevitable happened. Thick globs of hot semen started to spurt out from the goblin's cock and directly into Umi's throat. The elf groaned as an uncomfortably heavy load of goblin cum was suddenly forced down her own esophagus and into her own belly.

Umi did her best to swallow all of the goblin leader's cum as he emptied his sack into her, though she quickly realized that the amount of semen swirling in his balls was much higher than any of the others. The elf was still working on the sticky load when the lizard's tongue wrapped around her face and began to drag her all the way into its mouth. Umi groaned as she was forcefully dragged away from the goblin's cock while it was still firing off inside of her. The inflated helmet pulled out of her throat and into her mouth, splattering her tongue and tonsils with the sticky cream.

Umi felt her lips slide off of the tip of his cock just as the last jet of semen shot out and hit her in the lips. She eagerly licked it off just in time to realize that she was now staring directly out of the lizard's throat; it had her right where it wanted her.

Umi didn't even have time to thank the goblin leader for filling her up before the lizard's throat suddenly closed down on her, forcing her down its throat as it swallowed her whole. The warm, slimy tightness of the beast's gullet engulfed her from all sides as it carried her into its body, reminding her that she had immediately gone from "sex toy" to "food."

Outside, a massive, wriggling lump made its way down the pack lizard's muscled throat before entering into its gut. The goblins watched as its belly suddenly bulged out with twice the weight it had held just a few moments ago as the second girl entered its stomach, contributing to its meal. The goblin leader laughed heartily as his cock slowly shrunk back to its flaccid size.

"Well, that takes care of 'em," he commented aloud. "Les' go, boys - we'll be seein' them again in a few days!"

A slimy squelch resounded as Umi was messily deposited into the pack lizard's stomach, sliding haphazardly on top of its previous meal. Umi groaned as her naked butt came into direct contact with Cheng's chest, knocking the latter to the stomach floor and pinning her down so that her back was to Cheng's chest, and the latter's head was between her legs.

"Ch-Cheng?!" Umi cried out, trying to move but quickly finding herself held in place by the compression of the lizard's stomach muscles. "Are you alright?"

"U-Umi..." Cheng croaked, her voice audibly hoarse from screaming - or perhaps sobbing. "We're lizard food..."

"I know!" Umi cried, the excitement clear in her voice. "Isn't it awesome? That big guy looked so hungry... I'm so happy we get to feed him together~"

"Y-Yeah..." Cheng admitted, and then laughed, her answer betraying her true feelings in spite of her tears. "It hurts... but it feels incredible." Having been swallowed first, Cheng's body was a sopping, slimy mess. Her clothes had been digested into tatters, though they still clung to her slime-drenched body.

"Umm... Umi?" Cheng began, her tiny voice barely audible among the heavy gurgling of the lizard's stomach. "What's all of this... dripping out of you?"

Umi chuckled as she wiggled her hips next to Cheng's face. "I had some fun with the goblins, and they left me with their own little presents~"

"There's... so much..." Cheng noted as Umi's pussy and anus continued to flow with semen.

"Eheheh, you should see how much they made me swallow!" Umi noted as she patted her pot belly, distended from all of the loads forced down her throat. "Mmh... but having you down there is making me... a little horny again~" Umi giggled as she slid herself downward and playfully pressed her pussy against Cheng's face.

Cheng moaned submissively as Umi pressed her flower into her face, smearing her mouth and nose with a mixture of salty goblin cum and Umi's own fluids. The human girl responded almost automatically, lifting her head slightly to press her lips and tongue into Umi's labia.

Umi let out a groan, pressing herself down harder against Cheng as the latter began to eat her out. Cheng noted with joy as a mixture of Umi's sweet nectar and the salty, bitter seed that she had been bred with flowed into her mouth, eagerly licking it up and swallowing it.

Tastes... amazing... Cheng mentally noted as she buried her face deeper into Umi's pussy, eagerly eating her out as deeply as she could. Umi meanwhile began to sensually hump her friend's face as pleasure once again coursed through her body.

Cheng groaned as Umi's thighs squeezed against the side of her head. Her clear excitement was visible in the way that her pussy throbbed, leaking fluids all over Cheng's face in the process.

Then, just as quickly as it had begun, Umi lifted herself up off of Cheng's face and began to move. "Umm... where are you going?" Cheng began, staring at Umi's perfect rear as it twisted around.

"Just getting into a more comfortable position~" Umi replied as she turned all of the way around and planted her butt back on Cheng's face, smothering her with a 69. Cheng continued to playfully lick at Umi's slit as she resumed rubbing against her mouth, groaning as her fluids dripped freely down her face.

Moments after assuming that position, Umi carefully bent herself forward until her face was between Cheng's own legs. The latter arched her back in pleasure as Umi gently brushed her lips against her inner thigh. Cheng was already soaking wet - a fact that Umi noted happily as she began to repay her friend the favor.

Outside, nothing looked out of the ordinary as the pack lizard's distended, gurgling stomach bounced lightly up and down, the two girls inside of it undoubtedly stewing in its juices. Yet on the inside, Cheng and Umi were hard at work pleasuring each other, their moans growing more and more passionate as their bodies grew more heated.

After several more minutes of passionate lovemaking, Umi cried out in joy as she thrust her hips down on Cheng's face, hard, utterly smothering her as she climbed to her final orgasm. Her senses drowned out by the sensation of Umi's pussy throbbing against her mouth, Cheng quickly came as well, squeezing her thighs against the sides of Umi's head as she experienced her own orgasm.

Then, it was over, and Umi collapsed into a sweaty heap on top of Cheng, their legs twitching and their chests heaving.

The two laid there for a little while, sweating and panting, before Umi finally began to turn herself around. After a bit of uncomfortable, slimy shifting, the two were finally able to lay together normally and in each other's arms.

"Phew..." Umi let out a breath as she planted a kiss on Cheng's cheek, giggling as the latter winced at the touch of her lips. "That was lovely, Cheng~"

"Mhm..." Cheng replied shyly, reaching down to touch her tender pussy. "I'm spent... what's gonna happen to us now, Umi?"

"Well..." the elf began, thinking back to their current situation. "Looks like we're lizard food. I doubt we're getting out of here until he decides to relieve himself~"

Cheng blushed heavily at Umi's answer, the thought of being reduced to food for a pack animal sending a shiver down her entire body. "Y-Yeah, I thought so..."

"But just think," Umi continued, "think of all the calories and nutrition we'll provide for him. He needs a lot of energy to carry all the goblins' stuff, doesn't he?"

"Yeah..." Cheng admitted. "You're right. This is where we belong..."

"Mhm~" Umi agreed as she nuzzled up against Cheng's neck. "Just relax and let him digest us. I'm sure it'll all be over soon..."

Umi was only wrong about one thing. Several hours had passed since the goblin orgy, and since the pack lizard had devoured both Umi and Cheng. Now, the goblins were well on their journey, having already traveled several miles from the site of their encounter.

Trailing in the back of the group, the last pack lizard strolled lazily along. His fat belly hung between his legs and bounced ever so slightly with each step. Inside, Umi and Cheng laid quietly inside of its stomach, listening to it gurgle and feeling it gently bounce and churn. Although the last of their clothes had been completely digested away, leaving them utterly naked, they were otherwise totally unharmed.

"Weh..." Cheng whined as she wiped some of the residual slime off of her face which, by that point, had completely drenched their entire bodies. "What's taking him so long? Is he an herbivore?"

"No, definitely not..." Umi insisted, "this stomach was made for meat. I can tell. He might just have a really slow metabolism... ah..." Umi suddenly realized, "of course! He's a pack lizard, so... that's probably the case. Umm... I'm sorry, Cheng, I didn't even think..."

"N-No, it's okay!" Cheng insisted, "I don't mind being his food, for as long as it takes!"

"Think of how much we're helping him~" Umi added with a smile, "I can't wait to feel my energy pumping through his veins!"

"Easy for you to say..." Cheng said wistfully, "I'm probably gonna end up as one hundred percent poop. That's all my body's good for..."

"Aw, Cheng..." Umi began, "you know that's not true!"

Outside, the pack lizard's stomach continued to noisily churn and lurch as it strolled along, but was otherwise totally indistinguishable from every other time it had eaten a big meal. The goblins had long since gotten used to the sound of the pack lizard's bodies at work, and the natural noises of one of them processing food into calories meant nothing. Even as the beast lumbered along, its fat stomach slowly and quietly moved, the two girls inside more or less assimilated into stomach fodder.

For the pack lizard and his goblin crew, the rest of the day passed relatively uneventfully. Day eventually gave way to a dark night, and the goblins lay sleeping around the smoldering remains of a fire, having camped out for the night.

Off to the side of the encampment, a quiet stream made its way down the gentle slopes. A single, hulking pack lizard stood crouched by the waters and drank from it in huge, rolling gulps, messily swallowing globs and globs of water down its muscled throat. When it was satisfied, the lizard stood up and swallowed a throatful of saliva before lazily trotting back to the encampment. A few seconds later, it laid down and fell asleep on top of its bloated belly, the former snoring heavily as the latter noisily churned and sloshed.

"Eugh... where did all of this come from?" Cheng complained as the water sloshed around her slimy, naked body. The inside of the lizard's belly had been significantly filled up by the several dozen gallons of water it had swallowed, leaving the two girls it had eaten earlier that day halfway submerged. Furthermore, the cool water of the brook quickly took on the predator's body temperature, becoming a hot, slimy pool that lapped at the prey's sides as it sloshed around them.

"He probably just wanted a drink..." Umi chimed in, wiping some slime off of her face. "Don't forget, Cheng... we're just guests in his belly. Food isn't supposed to be comfortable inside of a stomach!"

"I know, I know..." Cheng replied with a sigh.

"He's been walking all day," Umi continued, "he needs to hydrate himself!"

"Yeah, and if you include all of the times we heard him stop to pee..." Cheng added, "I'm not surprised that he was a little thirsty."

glrrrrrgle

After being food inside of the lizard's stomach for an entire day, the two girls were especially sensitive to changes in its body. Thus, they immediately noticed as its breathing became deeper and heavier, and as its stomach started to churn just a bit more energetically than before.

"U-Umi... what's happening?" Cheng began a bit timidly as the lizard's stomach started to squeeze on them harder than before.

"It sounds like he's laid down to sleep for the night," the elf deduced. "He'll probably need our calories for the morning, so his tummy will probably convert us into energy overnight."

"You mean, digest us?" Cheng clarified, her voice inflected with a twinge of excitement.

"Mhm~" Umi added, "we'll probably be passing through his intestines by the time he wakes up~"

Cheng gave a little yelp as a glob of hot slime splashed onto her side, leaving a trail of red, irritated skin as it slowly dripped down her naked body. "Oww... his belly's getting a lot juicier, now."

"Yeah," Umi continued, "and we've already been stewing in his stomach juices all day, so..."

"So, once he gets down to it, we'll digest extra quickly," Cheng finished. "I'm already feeling a bit... ah... mushy..."

Umi giggled as she wrapped herself around Cheng and pulled her into a full-body embrace. "Eheheh, just think, Cheng, pretty soon he's gonna turn us into mush and mix us together~ I can't wait to pump through his whole body with you!"

"Y-Yeah..." Cheng replied as she began to blush, "I'm just thinking about his eventual toilet trip..."

"Yeah, but we spent so long in his tummy," Umi continued, "we'll probably be stewing in his bowels together for at least another day before he dumps us~ Ooh, I hope we're nutritious!"

"Yeah, me too~" Cheng said with a weak smile as she leaned into Umi's embrace. All around them, the stomach had begun to churn and digest harder and harder, covering them in sticky goop as it began to slowly assimilate them into mush.

GLRRRRRN

The contents of the pack lizard's stomach were thrown into total disarray as it rolled over in its sleep, causing everything inside to tumble about. After giving it a few seconds to settle, Umi's hands started to glow with magical energy.

"Huh? What are you doing?" Cheng asked upon noticing Umi's hands, feeling them warming up considerably.

"Just using one last little bit of magic~" Umi said as her hands began to hum, emanating a powerful glow. "This ought to make digestion a little more pleasurable, and a little less painful."

"Oh..." Cheng began, "w-well, I don't mind the pain so much, so... umm... you can save a little more magic for yourself... b-but thank you!"

Umi chuckled as the last of her magical energy disappeared from her hands, having run its course. "Well, at the very least, this'll allow us to chat with each other... you know, after we become all mushy."

"Mhm, I can't wait~" Cheng giggled.

Cheng and Umi spent the rest of the night locked in a tight embrace as the lizard slowly digested them. Their slimy, naked bodies slowly came apart under the onslaught of digestion, becoming less and less solid as the night went on until, finally, they took on the consistency of a lumpy, meaty soup.

"Cheng?" Umi's thoughts rang out in the slimy darkness of the beast's stomach, echoing across the churning walls. "Can you hear me?"

"Yes..." Cheng replied with her own thoughts. Having been converted into a mushy soup, the two were no longer capable of physical vocalizing, but could still communicate telepathically on account of Umi's magic and their now-combined conscious remains.

"We're really his food now, aren't we?" Umi continued with a little giggle in her silent voice.

"Yeah, but we were covered in slime in his stomach for so long, that this doesn't even feel that different... but this is wonderful," Cheng finally admitted, "his belly really put us in our place, didn't it Umi?"

"Yeah!" Umi agreed, delighted that they were on the same page. "Oh, it sounds like he's waking up! Good thing he's already got a belly full of breakfast~"

Indeed, the dawn had since broken, and the pack lizard slowly roused itself from sleep, having been awoken by its own natural processes. All around, the goblins likewise slowly awoke as well, indicating that the departure time wasn't far off.

The lizard's grumbling belly gave a low, deep gurgle as it started to squeeze, disturbing the contents inside. Nearly 24 hours after first eating them, the lizard was finally pumping the remains of the two girls into its intestines.

"Whoa, it's moving!" Cheng immediately pointed out, watching as the stomach walls squeezed down on their messy remains and began to push them deeper.

"Looks like he finally needs our calories~" Umi added, "slurp me up, lizard boy! Ooh, I can't wait to feed him!"

"Ngh, this is so degrading..." Cheng groaned as she felt her mass start to spread out into the lizard's duodenum, and then down into his small intestines. "I love it..."

"Umi... are... are you there?"

"Y-Yeah, I'm right here, Cheng..."

Hours and hours had passed since Umi and Cheng had passed into the intestines. Since then, it had resumed its journey with the goblins. Its bowels steadily worked on their remains, quietly pumping them through aside from the occasional messy gurgles. Umi and Cheng were now so far in the lizard's lower body that it would be impossible for anyone to notice their existence at all - not that it was possible to tell them apart from the rest of the slurry sluicing through its bowels, anyway.

"He's been walking for hours," Cheng pointed out, "I hope he's getting enough energy from us!"

"Don't worry, I'm sure he is," Umi insisted, "I can feel him absorbing my calories bit by bit. Can you feel it, too?"

"Yeah..." Cheng admitted. As the mass of her remains pushed through its small intestine, the villi lining its intestinal walls dug and slurped at her body, invading her and appropriating her nutrients and energy for its own bodily uses. "Did any of you come out the last time he stopped to pee?" she asked, referring to one of the numerous times the lizard stopped to empty its bladder along the way.

"Yeah," Umi giggled, "it was exciting. He shot me out pretty hard. Most of me is still in the back end of his small intestine, though."

"Same here," Cheng added, "I wonder when he'll... you know..."

"Poop us?" Umi interjected, "probably in a few more hours."

"Ooh, I can't wait..." Cheng added as the pack lizard's intestines lurched, pushing her a couple more inches along.

"Why's that?" Umi teased.

"Because," Cheng explained, "he's already almost used me all up, so it only makes sense that he'd dump me out when he's done with me... don't you think?"

"Oh, I totally agree~" Umi admitted.

The pack lizard interrupted their quiet conversation when it let out a sudden burst of gas, causing the contents of its bowels to noticeably shift.

"That'll be us, in a few hours~" Umi pointed out.

The sun was already beginning to descend, plunging the sky into a warm twilight, when the goblins emerged from the forest and appeared on the outskirts of the town they were headed towards. Despite having been traveling all day, the pack was only showing some light fatigue. The goblins and their pack lizards continued to trudge along regardless.

One of the pack lizards in particular was just starting to become aware of a steadily building pressure in its lower body. Having spent days passing through its body after being swallowed, Cheng and Umi had finally reached the end of the lizard's digestive tract. Now nothing more than a hot sludge, the two girls were packed into its rectum as its colon pushed more waste on top of them.

Outside, the lizard in question began to slow down its pace before eventually stopping. The accompanying goblins noticed this, and watched as it lifted up its tail, revealing its tightly puckered anus. The lizard proceeded to let out a powerful fart, indicating its intentions. One of the goblins gestured to the leader, who looked over with amusement.

"Good, let him take care of his need," the goblin leader began. "We promised we'd take those girls to town... well, we're here!" he laughed, "better let them out!"

Over to the side, the pack lizard kept its tail lifted as it slowly started to squat down. Its tailhole opened up just enough to let out a few more noisy farts, as it shifted the contents of its rectum and prepared them for expulsion.

"Cheng!" Umi's voice called out inside of the lizard, "do you feel that?"

"Yeah," Cheng replied as the lizard's rectum contracted and started to push them up against the inside of its anus. "It feels like he's pooping us."

"It sure does~" Umi giggled, "here it comes!"

phlrrrrt

Having no mind or care for civilized tact, the pack lizard squatted down a bit lower and began to noisily relieve itself. The first log poked out of its anus and quickly began to slide out, coiling up beneath it before finally breaking off. The lizard's tailhole twitched a few more times, letting out a few more bursts of gas along with the front of the second long, which was even longer than the first.

Cheng and Umi watched in mutual joy as their remains slid out of the pack lizard's anus, plopping onto the ground in a messy pile. The hefty logs of poop the lizard had turned them into and promptly shit out were brown and mostly smooth, but with corroded bits of leftover bone that made it all the way through its intestines poking out. No sign of the girls at all was visible in the lizard's stool, save for the broken half of a skull that was promptly buried under a new log of fresh lizard shit.

"Geez, there's so much..." Cheng pointed out as the pile reached two feet high, only for a fourth log to emerge from the lizard's anus.

"Probably 'cause of us~" Umi chirped, "he must really have needed to poop!"

"I knew I was just gonna go right through him..." Cheng whined.

Cheng and Umi's remains were buried underneath of a hot mountain of lizard shit that was probably also composed of what was left of them. All in all, it took the pack lizard a good few minutes to empty out its colon, although each log slid out easily and smoothly, indicating that its digestion had been thoroughly successful.

Just when it had finished pooping, however, instead of leaving, the lizard turned to face the pile it had left behind. A few seconds later, its penis emerged from its sheath and promptly lifted up. What followed was a powerful torrent of hot urine, fresh from the lizard's bladder, as it relieved itself on the pile. Given its size, the torrent of urine it shot out was no small deal, and by the time it was finished, at least two gallons of fresh lizard piss had been unloaded on the pile.

Then, just as quickly as it had begun, the lizard was finished. Unceremoniously, the beast turned away from the pile and began to walk away, trotting to catch up to the rest of pack.

"W-Wait!" Cheng began, still able to project her thoughts, "he's leaving already?"

"Well, yeah..." Umi retorted, "we're just a dump to him. Why would he stay?"

"Yeah, I guess..." Cheng replied, sighing as she felt the waste that was her remains start to cool. "It's just... we were a part of him for so long..."

"I know," Umi added, "but don't worry. As soon as we respawn in a few hours, we can go and get into some more trouble~ How's that sound?"

"Sounds like fun~" Cheng replied, "count me in!"
