

“Hey, Sam! Did you finish the assignment?”

Something had me distracted and when I looked up my professor was standing right in front of me with her hand out. “Assignment? Oh, that assignment.” I said with a smile reaching up to scratch my ruffled brown hair for a moment I reached down under my chair to grab my book bag, “Sorry Teach I was just distracted by something.” I said unzipping the bag and pulling out a stack of papers that I rushed to finish the night before. I smiled using my signature charm and handed her the stack.

I nodded my head, “Yes mam.” My best friend Jake was sitting next to me and looked at me with confusion as the teacher walked away, “What happened man you are usually on it when it comes to things like this.”

I sighed if I was going to tell anyone I might as well tell him. “This girl has been stalking me,” I said shortly.

“What a girl?” He questioned, “Like an ex? Or?”

“No I’ve never met her I’ve never talked to her but every time I’m out in public no matter where I’m at if I look hard enough I can find her. This has been happening over the last few weeks where she’d just always be there.” I paused thinking about how to explain myself, “At first I thought it’d be a coincidence until last night when I looked out the window she was staring in from the street watching me.”

“You haven’t thought about trying to talk to her or call the cops or something cus that’s pretty scary,” Jake said sounding almost nervous as he listened to me.

“I uh thought about it but I’m kind of a coward when it comes to approaching girls and if I called the police what would I tell them that a 4 foot 8 woman with purple hair is following me around.

“Well, she might have bad plans for you or something. Do you feel comfortable heading back to your dorm tonight?” Jake questioned, “Cus I can walk home with you and I’ll keep an eye out to see if she’s following us.

“Can you two top talking!” The professor suddenly yelled looking directly at Jake and me.

I sighed and nodded my head towards Jake and tried to forget about the short purpled hair girl that had been following me for the last few days. Everything else during class went well and it was the last class of the day which was a relief that I wouldn’t have to spend any time trying to look for Jake.

We then walked together through the campus towards the dorm. I was looking around as we walked and I could tell Jake was doing the same. I didn't see anyone though normally if I tried to look I could find her. Maybe she knew I was with someone and so she decided not to follow me this time. I looked over at Jake, "Do you think that you being with me is scaring her off?" I questioned him.

"Seems like it cus I'm not seeing anyone matching the description you gave me." He respond as we closed in on the dorm house. "Well she shouldn't be in here I'm going to go ahead and head to my dorm you stay safe now. If you want me to walk with you to class tomorrow I will.

I smiled at Jake's kindness he's a good friend I thought to myself, "Don't worry about that I'm out of classes for the next three days. So I think I'm just going to spend some time in my dorm."

"Understood. I'll see you what is that... Friday then?" He questioned with a wrinkled frown on his face from trying to figure out what day would be my next class day.

"Yeah..." I laughed, "It's Friday. I'll see you then." I said with a wave and headed into the dorm. I walked up the stairs to the third floor and down the hall until I got into my room. I fiddled around for the room key smiling happy I had the room to myself since my roommate recently moved out. I quickly unlocked the door and pushed the door open closing the door behind me. I heard an audible click and then I saw her. A silent scream escaped from my breath as she slowly turned around revealing her fully naked body as she tilted her head with a smile.

"Hello, Sam. I've been waiting for you." She said warmly.

To be honest I was terrified. Well at first but there was something comforting about her smile that put my guard down. I wanted to ask her how she got into my dorm. I wanted to question her why she was in my dorm. Why she had been following me the past few days or what her plans were, but all that I was able to say was "W...who are you?"

"Rei. Rei Ayanami." She said keeping that cute smile on her face that broke down my defenses even more, and before I had a chance to ask any more questions she began to speak and I listened. "I know you're wondering why I'm here or why I've been following you the past few days. It's because I've been trying to figure out if you're the one I want to spend the rest of my life with. From the samples I've collected from you, I know you are compatible with me. A rare trait to have." She said taking a couple of steps forward.

Normally I would have taken a few steps back from a stranger who had just broken into my dorm, but I was in a trance. Her breasts as they bounced up and down with each step she took toward me. My eyes scanned lower down her perfectly smooth stomach stopping at her swaying erect cock. I wasn't sure if she was truly a girl or not for a moment seeing such a large cock on someone with such beautiful breasts, but as her balls bounced and swayed I was able to see a glimpse of her clit. I knew my face was red at that point. Firey red. I remembered all the times I had jerked off to futanari porn in the past and now I had one a real beautiful futanari in my room naked telling me she wants to spend the rest of her life with me. I didn't even register her saying that I was genetically compatible with her I wouldn't have understood what she meant at first anyway.

She took even more steps toward me stopping against my body pressing her breasts against my upper stomach and her head against my upper chest as her arms wrapped around me softly. "You smell nice. To think I'll be able to smell this every day. To live this every day. It's truly what I want."

Even with the words, she was saying my mind was in a haze. I didn't understand her but all I could do is agree with her, "Y..yeah." I said softly returning the hug. Feeling her bare flesh against my hands made me shiver as I held her against me.

"Do you know what I want?" She questioned.

"You want a boyfriend," I responded thinking it was obvious I said holding her against my heart. Speaking of it was racing and then I got the most confusing answer I could ever imagine.

"No. More than that I want to become a part of you. I want." She paused for a moment running her hand from my chest and down sliding it over my stomach and stopping at my cock. I felt like I was going to explode at her touch alone, "I want to become part of this."

"What do you mean? You want to become part of my... dick?"

"It's a bit more than that. I'd completely merge with your reproduction system. I'd also still be able to stay me but you'd be in control of everything where we go. What we do. I don't want to worry about anything anymore and merging with a beautiful person like yourself sounds like a perfect fate for a clone like me." She said looking upward and smiling against my chest.

Now to be honest I think a lot of people would have turned her down. In my mind, I hardly thought it even possible but it all sounded quite interesting. After a few moments of awkward silence, I smiled down at her and said, "Sure. We can do that."

"Really." Her eyes lit up happily making this whole thing worth it. He just seemed too excited to hear those words and it was... cute. She gained a more serious look on her face, "Take your clothes off then and lay on the bed so I can get to work." She said motioning me over to lie down. I quickly walked over to the bed doing as she told stepping down throwing my shirt to the side and letting my pants and undershorts droop down to my ankles leaving them behind.

I smiled as I climbed up to the bed showing off my quite average six-inch penis but massive egg-sized balls that I had manscaped and shaved. "I'm not sure how you can do this but does this look like a cock you want to become part of?" I questioned trying to sound sexy and tease her a bit. Of course, I knew how awkward I sounded but it seemed she didn't mind too much.

It does. She said smiling and tilting her head as she handed me a bright green pill. "Just swallow this it's chewable so you don't have to worry about having a drink. I took the pill without question and chewed it. Green Apple flavor. I thought to myself smiling as I watched her pull out a large syringe and injected a bright almost glowing green fluid into her arm. I watched as she flinched and then smiled, "Alright no turning back now." She said softly. I wasn't too sure if she was talking to me or if she was reassuring herself that she just went behind the point of no return.

A few moments later I watched as she gently laid on me. Her breasts pressed against my bare chest as she slowly approached my face and our lips interlocked. It was a deep kiss that drove me wild. My cock throbbed at the taste of the inside of her mouth. Our tongues danced with each other I could feel her grind against my stomach as she softly pulled away leaving a tendril of saliva between us that broke as she pulled far enough away.

With a smile she moved downward I wasn't too sure what she was doing, but when I felt the tight softness of her insides wrap around my cock I could see exactly what was going on. I was fucking her. I was fucking her my mind went wild seeing my own cock inside of her pussy fully. Her face red flushed as she slid back and forth and she started to moan loudly. Almost yelling from pleasure each time she slid forward.

Which was when I softly wrapped my hands around her thighs and pushed and pulled her backward to help her. To be honest, I wasn't too sure how long this was going on, and I was surprised at how high my endurance was since I hadn't come yet. I didn't know that it was a side effect of the pill I took looking back, but after an untold amount of time, she looked down at me and smiled, "It's time. I can feel it starting." She said softly.

She then pulled herself off of me and laid down and almost the way someone would dip their toe into a pool she pressed her left foot into my scrotum. It felt, to say the least, weird because I could immediately feel what was her foot becoming mine. I couldn't see what was happening but it was here that I knew she was truly serious about becoming my flesh and this wasn't some kind of kinky roleplay. I closed my eyes and leaned back as pleasure overloaded my mind.

She then took her other foot and softly pressed it against my growing scrotum, "It's working Sam. I'm becoming part of you." She said softly smiling to herself as she sunk herself deeper watching as what was her feet become my ballsack. She wiggled her butt a bit in the air as she began to push herself back into me. "So good." She moaned, "So warm..."

I sat up then so I could truly see what was happening pushing through the overwhelming feeling of my body claiming an entire woman as its own. It was a sight to see. Her legs were stinking into my balls she was up to her ankles in my balls that were now melon-sized and growing the more she sunk inside. I could feel my cock throbbing as it tried to cum but couldn't as if something was stopping it.

I may be a bit ashamed to say this but I wanted more of her. I grabbed her by her legs and pulled her toward me pulling more and more of her legs inside of me. My balls grew with each pull until I couldn't pull anymore. Then I saw a sight that kind of scared me. My true cock sunk into her back and disappeared as I watched her flesh begin to shape and morph around where my cock was to look like cock flesh. I watched as that look traveled up her body stopping at her breasts.

This was when everything clicked everything she felt every movement she made of her arms even the twitches of her fingers I could feel. I could feel everything even her mouth I could even taste her mouth on my mouth reminding me of the intense sex that took my virginity just moments before. She softly turned around, "You took it like a champ." She said softly with that same smile on her face.

Slowly I got off the bed to stand up and look down at what happened. It took a moment to gain balance but the weight didn't seem too bad it was almost like my body had taken her strength and made it my own as I hardly didn't feel I just added a four-foot-eight woman to my nethers. I smiled as I stood up looking at the mirror. She was truly merged with me. My eyes traveled from her head and lowered to her breasts which were much bigger and dripping with white. I was unsure if it was lactation or something else. I smiled as my eyes continued to travel down. Her beautiful white stomach was intact but her sides and her back were now cock flesh that traveled down into my body. I then looked at my ball sack where her cock and balls had changed to just an extra set of balls. I had four now basketball-sized balls. "I bet we could cum so much," I said with a laugh.

"Yeah... that's what my whole body is for now. To make your cum." She said happily, "And this is just what I wanted." She said staring in the same mirror I was with a happy look on her face. She didn't need to hold herself up or was it more that she couldn't move her arms as they are pinned to her side.

"Hey. So are you able to move right now or what's going on?" I questioned her she simply smiled remaining pretty still.

"I can hardly move... because well... I'm stiff." She said with an even cuter smile.

:" Oh you mean..." That was right I did have a throbbing erection so it made since that me having that would affect her since she really was my cock now. "Heh... so you can't move at all when I'm like this?" I questioned.

"I can it's just... hard." She responded sliding her arms up her... or should I say my shaft as her arms came to her breasts and began to play with her nipples making my entire body tingle. "Can you feel this?" She questioned.

"Yeah... it feels weird," I said moaning lightly sitting back down on the bed. She turned around and lifted her body staring into my eyes. "Why don't we try some things." She said softly putting her hand on my head softly guiding it down to her breasts. It was true... she was lactating. I began sucking on the engorged tits and with each such warm sweet milk spilled out into my mouth. It felt so good and tasted so perfect that I just continued to drink from my new personal milk source. I could feel her hand softly begin to caress the back of my head running up and down my hair and down to my neck as I took my fill. I wasn't too sure about how long I was drinking all I knew is when I stopped I rested her head on my breast. She was looking down on me with the same cute smile that I think I've fallen in love with from when I first met her in my dorm.

"You like it?" She questioned tilting her head and continuing to caress my head.

"I do. It's really good." I said feeling her soft breasts against my ear. Then my mind started to realize they weren't her soft breasts anymore they were mine. Everything she was a part of me. Mine.

"W..what are you thinking about I'm getting... really stiff." She moaned as her tits suddenly shot milk out it landed on my chest and stomach.

I smiled down, "Oh nothing just how you belong to me." I said happily pulling her head up to mine as we began to kiss deeply. It was an odd thought to think about. I was technically making out with my own cock but it was hot and I loved every moment of it. I allowed her to pull back and smiled, "So... why don't you tell me how all this works." I said putting my hands behind my head and laying backward on the bed.

She rose laying down against my chest and began to play with my nipple with her finger. "Everything I am now is part of your reproductive system. Everything I exist for is to breed children for you. I can breed them myself or I can impregnate someone else. Of course, using me to fuck someone might be hard to do as not many people could take a four-foot cock anywhere." She said with a light laugh and continued on, "My wombs are the two extra balls in your scrotum."

I stopped her there, "Wait... I'll be growing children in my ball sack and be able to give birth?" I questioned her.

"Yeah," She said continuing on. "I also don't need to breathe and I can eat but my digestive system has been completely changed my stomach breaks things down and turns anything I eat into more of your cum Sam. Everything I am is for your pleasure and your reproduction." She explained.

My thoughts ran wild with the possibilities. "So how will I live a normal life with you this size." I questioned, "A lot of people will have questions."

“You don’t have to worry about that. I brought a harness it will squeeze me tight against your body it might hurt at first but you’ll get used to it. When you are wearing it no one would even be able to tell I’m here.” She said continuing to play with my nipple.

“That’s good,” I said. That was one worry taken care of. “That pill you had me take what did it do?”

“Well for one it was something to prevent you from having an orgasm but was able to keep you hard and erect. Two things that needed to happen for your body to take me as your cock.”

“And where is my old cock?” I questioned.

“I am your old cock. What your old cock was is gone and I’ve completely melded with it. This is irreversible you are stuck with me forever unless you want to get rid of me as there is a way to just turn me into nothing but your rod.” She said.

I quickly shook my head, “There’s no way I’m going to kill you just so you’d look like my dick. Besides I like how you look You are beautiful and if I get to see you every single time I pull my pants down... well I’m happy with that.” I said with a smile.

“It makes me happy to hear that. It seems I’ve really chosen a great person to merge with.” She said happily nuzzling her head into my chest.”

“And it seems I’ve made a great decision allowing you to merge with me,” I said wrapping my arms softly around her back. She closed her eyes falling asleep against me. I watched as small changes happened around her. Small changes happened as she slept against me the cock flesh becoming more pronounced and wrinkled. Some of my pubic hairs began to grow where my flesh was. I could hear the audible gurgly sounds of my cum sloshing in my balls a sound I’ve never really heard before. They had to be so full. I thought to myself. I desperately wanted to jerk off but I didn’t want to wake her.

I closed my eyes and leaned back resting my head on my pillow. Besides even if I did jerk off and wake her up with that pill still in effect would I even be able to release. I’ll do it first thing in the morning and we’ll do it together. I smiled at that thought. Our first orgasm as one person. I began imagining what it would look like to have her shoot my load but it was hard for me to imagine it... and trust me no matter what thought that came to my head was no where close to the real thing and what I would see and go through the next day. Eventually though I did fall asleep with my new cock also asleep drooling a milky saliva on my chest.

I woke up to the sound of my alarm clock. I cursed forgetting to turn it off the night prior. For a moment I thought that everything that had happened the night before was a dream but of course, as I looked down I saw her sleeping. My chest was stained white from whatever was drooling out of her mouth all night. I went to feel her and she was almost squishy and malleable. This must be what she’s like when I’m soft. I thought to myself standing up. She stayed asleep her head almost touched the floor but it seemed she was the perfect size to droop down without being dragged. I walked to the bathroom and turned on the shower water. I checked the temperature of the water to make sure it was a good temp and began to shower. Washing off the now dried flakey stuff that was all over my chest. I looked down seeing how the water rushed down her I could feel every droplet sliding down her and yet she was still asleep. "Can she breathe?" I said to myself as I finished showering. I then took a towel and worked on the long process of drying myself off.

My entire body tingled as I worked on her body and as I was finishing up I could feel her stirring and starting to wake up. "Oh... wakey wakey sleepy head," I said throwing the towel into the laundry basket.

"Sorry the transformation took a lot out of me it made me really tired." She said after yawning and stretching cutely.

"Don't worry about it. I think it's about time we have some fun don't you think?"

"You don't mean..."

"Let's cum together," I said with a smile smacking the base of my massive rod.

She turned around and smiled, "I don't know what it'll be like but it sounds fun. Fun to show off how useful I am to you." She said with her signature head tilt and smile.

I smirked and headed back to the bed and laid back on the pillows and reached down to my shaft and began to massage it with both hands. She began moaning from my touch while I focused on her breasts. I watched them bounce and jiggle as she moaned loudly. Her hands wrapped around her breasts as she began to massage her tits sending what almost felt like electricity surging through me.

Three fingers circulated her nipples while she moaned louder and louder while I stroked as much of the base of my cock as I could building in intensity. Milk began to shoot from her nipples from the way she pushed into her fluffy engorged breasts spraying me in the face with mil but I didn't care I kept working.

Listening to her moaning.

The feeling of her tits being massaged aggressively.

Along with the feeling of my hands jacking at the base.

But... what threw me off the edge was my thoughts. She belonged to me she was a part of me. Nothing more than my cock and only here to please me and be my reproductive system. This line of thinking sent me over the edge. I closed my eyes and shuttered as I could literally feel my nuts squeezing.

At that moment Rei slid up to me and interlocked her lips with mine kissing me deeply. I returned the kiss I knew I was close... and just after a few moments of us trading saliva and our tongues dancing with each the squeezing in my balls grew stronger as I could feel them shooting cum upward making loud sloshing noises with each contraction in my scrotum. Which was when I opened my eyes. I saw Rei's stomach bloated as she was pregnant 9 months in with five babies her belly was massive! I fought through the orgasm and ran to the bathroom. She looked like she was going to be sick as her throat began to bulge out but I was too late the moment I opened the bathroom door she couldn't hold it anymore. A torrent of cum began to shoot out of her mouth covering everything. It looked like a pressure washer shooting the walls the bathtub the toilet. The thick hot jizz was coming out at such a powerful blast I shot the toilet seat clean off sending it into the bathtub that was filling with my jizz.

It didn't stop either I fell backward against the wall with the pressure as she continued to blast out more and more of my baby batter some of it hitting the ceiling and dripping back down on my face but I had nowhere near the energy to move as it happened. All I could do is bathe in the extended seemingly unending climax.

When we finally came around we looked seeing that we had filled the bathtub with cum. I tried to catch my breath a couple of times and finally looked down at Rei, "W...wow." That was all I could say. "A..are you ok?"

"Yeah." She said taking a few moments to respond.

"Did it feel good for you too?" I asked her.

"Yeah... it felt amazing. Good thing I don't need to breathe cus we were shooting for a while huh?"

"Yeah... I can't believe how much came out." I said with a laugh looking around. The musky smell of my cum filled the air. I stood up feeling the sticky sloshy jizz in between my toes as I got out of the bathroom, "I just don't know how we're going to clean all that." I said with a laugh as I walked over to the couch and sat down.

"I wouldn't worry about it right now," Rei said with a smile as I turned the tv on to take some time to relax and recover from the huge climax. It was at that moment my cell phone began to ring. I grabbed it from the table and recognized the number. "Hey," I said answering the phone.

"Yo man I was checking on ya. Is your stalker still around?"

"Yeah about that I actually met her," I said coming clean with my friend.

“Yeah? And you found out why she had been stalking you?”

“I have,” I said smiling down as she wrapped her arms around my neck and rested her head on my shoulder.

Did there end up being anything to worry about?” He continued to question.

I laughed and shook my head, “Nah everything ended up ok. Was that the only reason you called?” I asked knowing there had to be something more.

“Well I know you don’t read your texts or emails but our math teacher messaged us. She rescheduled the class for tomorrow.

I became still... “What...”

“I know you wouldn’t want to miss it so I wanted to let you know since you have perfect attendance in all your classes and you probably want to keep it that way.”

I sighed into my phone. I could do this. I can go to the class how I am. I reasoned with myself as I tried not to sound too worried on the phone, “Yeah I’ll be there. It’s just not like her to reschedule classes and risk causing people’s class schedules to clash.”

“Yeah apparently she talked to all the other teachers and no other teacher had a class scheduled at that time tomorrow which is why it had to be tomorrow,” Jake explained.

I sighed, “Alright. See you tomorrow.”

“What’s wrong sir?” Rei questioned me still having her arms softly wrapped around my neck.

“Calling me sir now?” I asked playfully. It felt impossible to be upset with her arms wrapped around me.

“You are the one in charge and control where we go... it seems only fitting. To call you Master.”

I shook my head it sounded too weird, “No... Sam just Sam is fine. It’s weird to have my cock call me master so... uhh I now have school tomorrow and I’m really worried about that. You said something about a harness earlier?”

She smiled, “I did. It’s in the top drawer over there.” She said pointing to my dresser.

“So you went through my room yesterday. That’s my underwear drawer!” I said defensively standing up and feeling her sway between my legs as I walked.

“I waited in your room the whole time after you left. I had a lot of time on my hands and.” She smiled, “I wanted to get to know you as much as possible. I wanted to know how you did things. I wanted to know our scent your personality there was so much I was able to figure out just by going through your things.”

I wasn't too mad I could never stay mad at her for too long. I opened my underwear drawer and it seemed she had already replaced all my underwear with massive undies that she could fit in. On one side of the undies, I saw the harness and it was massive!

“Try it on!” She said trying to encourage me.

I smiled and put my legs into the harness and pulled it straight up it held my balls perfectly and as I pulled it up more and pulled it over my shoulders I could feel the restraining feeling on my cock almost like I was wearing a cock ring. When I looked down I couldn't see Rei she was entirely hidden by the harness by being pressed into my stomach and chest. “You alright in there?”

“Yeah.” I could hear her muffled voice speaking through the harness and my chest. “You smell nice Sam.”

I blushed and smiled down and began to walk around. It almost felt normal besides the tight feeling I felt around my cock and the slight shifts I would feel her make against my skin every now and then. “I think we can do this,” I said happily.

The rest of the day went by pretty smoothly. We spent our off day watching tv, playing games, and well... making out pretty much being a repeat of the day before. I also spent a bit of time that night scrubbing the bathroom walls and floors before bed. Cleaning up the mess from the morning.

I also ordered for two on a delivery app and within a couple of hours of my order, I got a load of Chinese Food. I got to watch and feel her eat for the first time which was an interesting experience. As she ate and the food slid into her stomach I could feel my balls growing heavier as she ate. She wasn't kidding I figured out. Everything she ate was converted to my jizz which honestly was pretty hot.

We got into bed and slept together this time I put a small blanket over my chest where she laid her head so I wouldn't be soiled as much as I was last time I woke up. With a yawn, I woke up with a smile on my face she was patiently staring at me as I did. “Oh, you woke up before me?” I asked her.

“Yeah... but it's ok I like watching you when you sleep.” She said happily.

I smiled even wider at that and looked over at the clock. It was time to go. The blanket over my chest worked wonders. I pulled it off and got off the bed dawning the harness first and putting on the only clean clothes I had. A grey tank top undershirt with a striped polo t-shirt. I then struggled to button my pants up. Looking at myself in the mirror I didn't look too bad. It was obvious down in my crotch area that my cock was shoved underneath my waistband. It almost looked like I just went through a growth spurt but it didn't show that I had a woman combined with my dick that went all the way up to my chest.

"Alright... just stay quiet," I said down to her and reached for my chest to pat her head softly. I then headed out to the door. I took the relatively short walk from the dorm to my class I could feel her sweating inside of the harness. She was moist against my chest and stomach. "Fuck." I whispered under my breath as I entered the school.

Jacob as always was waiting for me waving as I came in. We entered the class together talking about the bullshit we always talk about when we're together. It almost had me forget about my new passenger that was with me. We talked about girls, video games, and pretty much anything else that we could think about until our professor came in to start class.

I focused throughout the class but I could tell Rei was starting to get bored. She started rubbing her breasts against my flesh it felt... good. Her hands slowly made their way out of the tight harness and began playing with my own nipples underneath my shirt. My face I knew was growing redder by the second.

"Sam, can you solve the equation on the board?" My teacher suddenly questioned me. My face was dripping in sweat it took everything in me to not moan out in pleasure at the way she was playing with my body. I stood up and walked to the board and did as I was told as she continued to massage my body until her head slipped out of the harness. I was able to stop myself from moaning but had to reach into my chest to push her head back as I finished. I hurried back without really saying anything to the teacher or waiting for her to check my work.

I sat in my seat breathing heavily as it seemed she got the message and stopped messing with me for the rest of the class. Which went by dreadfully slow. While I sat down I felt an odd weight in my testicles like something was inside of them and it didn't feel like cum. It was definitely worrisome I wanted to get home as soon as possible to talk with Rei to figure out what was going on. When class ended I stood up as fast and almost ran out of the classroom. I was interrupted feeling a hand on my shoulder stopping me. It was Jacob.

"Bro... what's going on you alright?" He asked me with a worried look on his face.

"I'm just not feeling too well and want to go home and go to bed."

"So I guess that's a no for you to stop by my place to play some games then?" He questioned.

I shook my head. I really wanted to cus I really enjoyed the time I spent with Jacob but at that moment I really needed to get home, "Maybe another time man." I said smiling as I walked off at a brisk pace towards my dorm. When we were alone I began speaking, "Hey Rei... do you feel that down there?"

"Yeah... I started feeling it the moment I was messing with you in class. There's really only one thing it could be." She said still sounding muffled in the harness.

"What could it be it feels really weird it's almost starting to feel like it's moving."

What she said next caused me to stop walking. "Well, you can call yourself a dad."

"Y... W...we're pregnant?" I questioned her.

"Yeah... they are growing in your front pair of balls now. It will be quick too."

My heart started to race I couldn't believe it, "How did it happen? We really didn't fuck besides you merging with me."

Rei was able to force her head out of the harness so I could hear her better.

"The science isn't perfect and it seems that there is some tubing in between my womb and your balls meaning."

"When I cum I'm also impregnating you," I said catching on to what she was saying quickly.

"Yeah... but that means you are going to be a daddy too so many babies. A walking baby maker and I'm going to be a mommy."

"Which I guess this explains why you started lactating the moment we merged huh?" I said beginning to walk trying to figure out how we were going to do this.

"Yeah, that would most definitely make sense. She responded.

I continued my walk to the dorm with a sigh. Thankfully no one was in the hallway I really didn't want to deal with anyone. I opened the door and began undressing throwing my shirt to the side and everything else as well. The last thing was to take off was the harness. I undid the straps on my shoulders and they fell right off as she flopped downward back to her normal position dangling her head just above the ground.

The first thing that got to me was the smell of old cum mixed with body odor. "Oh gosh, that thing makes you stinky," I said with a smile looking down at her almost forgetting about the children growing in my scrotum.

"Then why don't we take a shower?" She said smiling.

“Course,” I said walking over to the bathroom and getting everything set up, and walking into the shower water. I soaped up. While I was working on cleaning myself she rose to my face and pushed her lips against mine. Then there we were kissing in the shower. Deeply I first tongued her mouth and then she mine. I felt her tongue slide into my mouth but further than I expected as it slid into my throat pushing downwards.

No tongue is that long. I thought to myself as she licked the inside of my throat. Thankfully I didn't have a gag reflex as I slowly pulled away from the kiss her tongue still lulled out of her mouth going all the way down to her breasts. “Guess that's another change you went through,” I said with a laugh.

She smiled sliding her tongue back into her mouth while I shampooed my hands and began to softly run my hands through her hair. I smiled as it almost felt like I was playing with the head of my cock (which I guess I technically was.). I watched as the soaps sudded up and then ran her under the shower water and watched as the soap slowly slid down her body. Down her face and her breasts over her sexy stomach only stopping at the base of my shaft to drip down to the shower floor.

“Fuck you are so sexy,” I whispered turning around from the water and pushing my head into her boobs. I could feel her reaching for something as the water suddenly turned off and I could feel the main faucet beneath me starting to run.

“Sit down.” She commanded me.

I listened. Obeying the order that my cock gave me which was most definitely weird to think about but at that moment I was all hers. I kept my face shoved in her breasts and slowly slid my butt down sitting at the edge of the bath feeling the water filling up around me. The water was incredibly warm I could even feel my massive balls begin to float upward with the water as the water rose. I wrapped my arm around her and she wrapped her arms around me. I felt safe, to say the least.

I felt warm.

Protected.

Content.

She reached back to turn the water off as we cuddled in the steaming bathtub. Every now and then I would feel a squirm and a slight movement in my balls where our supposed babies reminded us that they were still there and weren't going anywhere. I loved the feeling but I ignored them I was too happy with where I was with her wet pillowy breasts engulfing my face.

“Do you want to cum together again?” She asked.

It was a big mess to clean up I thought to myself but I knew how much I loved the feeling of it and didn't hesitate to nod my head against her breasts.

"Then why don't you try using me like you're supposed to." She said pulling backward and smiling wide at me, "I got a surprise for you." She said happily looking at me with a sinister look.

"What kind of surprise could you have for me?" I questioned wanting to dive my head back into her perfect breasts.

"Go check under your bed." She said putting a finger to her lips and pulling down. I don't know what it was about the look that she gave me but it was so sexy. I thought at the moment there was almost nothing I wouldn't do at that moment with how turned on I was. I then stood up letting the water drip off of me and didn't even bother drying off dripping through the entire dorm as I got to my bed.

I dived under my bed and almost screamed at what I found. I pulled it out quickly lifting it up it was quite heavy. It was a massive Rei-sized flashlight. I smiled as it even had a half gallon of lube next to it. "You actually want to do this. It might be a little rough for someone as cute as you." I said lifting my eyebrows and looking down at her who had lifted herself onto the bed resting her back on it so she could look up to me.

"If I didn't want it I wouldn't tell you about it." She said lifting her arms up a bit but resting them on the bed as well causing her breasts to flop a bit.

I smiled down at her. "You think you'll enjoy it as much as I will?" I asked.

"Of course. I love being used by you, Sam." She said happily.

Hearing those words turned me on beyond imagination. I had to use her for what she was supposed to be used for and I had to at that moment! I threw the flashlight on the bed and poured a copious amount of lube on my hand some of it even dripped down to the floor but I didn't care. I began to feel around the flashlight making sure that every crevice was slick and ready for us.

I smirked when I was satisfied and moved back a bit so I could get a good angle to push it inside. Her head was the first to slide in. I could feel the fake flesh squeeze my cock head tightly while also giving a bit of resistance. I could hear Rei's muffled moans inside giving me the go-ahead to push even deeper. I slid it in further inch by inch foot by foot until I could feel the flashlight against the bottom of my stomach and the top of my squirming balls. She was all the way inside her head pressed against the end of the flashlight. It felt amazing!

It felt even more amazing when I started to pull my hips back and then forward again fucking the flashlight with my Rei cock. Back and forth I aggressively pumped gritting my teeth as I did. I was so used to being quiet while jerking off I remained quiet while I humped into the flashlight, of course, all things come to an end while my balls were slapping against the bed I could feel the all too familiar of my back balls tightening up and then pulses. I moaned out collapsing on top of the fleshlight while my cock or should we say Rei vomited up gallons of cum so much cum it started to droop down from the entrance of the fleshlight. I could feel my cum soaking her meaning we were definitely going to need another bath.

Slowly I slid it out feeling more and more cum blasting out from the entrance the more I drug Rei outward. Her body was covered in the white cream mixed with a shiny lube which seemed to be doing wonders to her skin causing me to smile as I watched more of her slide out of the fleshlight. Eventually with a massive POP her head was free from the fleshlight and I looked down at her with my tongue lulling out of my mouth as I attempted to recover from the hard orgasm.

She looked up at me smiling, "That was amazing!" She exclaimed. I was still exhausted so it took me a bit to respond. She quickly realized that as she rose up my body wrapping her still wet sticky arms around my neck. "It's ok take all the time you need. I know you're still getting used to this too." She said interlocking her still cum drenched lips with mine. I didn't mind though I happily kissed her back closing my eyes. I ran my hands up and down feeling her drenched body and the thick cum building up between my fingers as I ran my hand up and down her body.

Then I said it. It was the first time I ever said it to her or anyone that wasn't family. It certainly wouldn't be the last time I'd say it to her either. I pulled my lips away from hers and smiled, "I love you." I said gently. She looked me in the eyes softly. It almost looked like her eyes began to water. I could almost see the pain in her life up to this point. I could see everything that had pushed her to this point of wanting to give herself to another person to become a part of another person.

Her arms quickly wrapped again around me holding me even tighter, "I love you too!" She exclaimed.

"You better," I said softly leaning my head down into her cum drenched shoulder. It didn't bother me at all. After all, it was all my jizz anyway. I felt more movement down inside of my balls almost like kicking in multiple directions at once. "They're getting pretty rowdy down there huh?" I asked her with a smile.

"They are." She smiled at me warmly, "Are you excited to be a father?" She questioned.

"I am," I said with honesty.

"But how does it all work why are they growing so fast?" I questioned getting back into the familiar shower and taking the fleshlight with me. No way was I going to let it sit with everything we put inside of it together. Lifting it was hard too I had no idea how much weight I added to it but it had to be at least three times its weight as I made my way to the shower.

She was quiet for a bit as I dragged the massive flashlight into the bathroom and then she started talking, "It's because I'm a clone. We are made to rapidly grow. And if we have children they have that same gene. We... have the same lifespan as any other person but it only takes us a few years to reach adulthood."

"I see," I said interested in her story well, I've grown to the point of being interested in anything she said to me. I turned the water on and went back to the enjoyable task of cleaning myself and Rei.

"A clone huh. How old are you really?" I questioned her.

"I've been alive for 18 years old but I've looked like I was eighteen for a long time. I've been used throughout my life forced to make decisions that caused people to get hurt. I just didn't want to have to make the decisions like that anymore." I could hear the pain in her voice as she spoke.

Slowly I turned the water off and lifted her up to embrace her. I could even see the bulges moving and kicking out inside of my balls as they moved inside. I tried not to focus on that but focus on Rei as I embraced her once again in a hug. "You don't have to worry about any of that anymore. Your mine now remember?" I said happily, "You don't have to make any choices or think about anything about what you're going to do or feel any pressure. You're going to have exactly what you wanted when we first met. You just live life like your my cock and my partner ok?" I said pulling her back and smiling watching the tears stream down her face, but looking at them it was like I could almost tell they were happy tears.

"Thank you." She said reaching up to wipe the wetness from her eyes.

I then walked out of the bathtub after throwing the flashlight inside and turning the water on. I dried myself off and walked back to the bed. We spent time together. I watched tv as she laid on her side watching with me.

My hand rubbed up and down my testicles move and squirm as I tried to feel inside. I tried to count how many were inside. As I squeezed and pushed I felt a sudden shift as it felt like I pushed one up and out of my scrotum. A large bulge traveled upward and stopped at her stomach.

While this happened Rei gasped and moaned breathing hard while the bulge moved. Then it happened again this time without my help. "What's going on Rei?" I asked her watching almost transfixed as what was supposedly my babies traveled from my nutsack and up my shaft and into the belly of my cock. It happened six times which meant we were expecting six entire babies.

“They’re getting too big for my womb so my stomach’s becoming a makeshift womb.” Rei moaned in what sounded like pleasure and pain in between each word. She turned around and I could watch as her belly slowly started to inflate.

I couldn’t resist I dug my hands down into her belly feeling it grow in my grasp. I felt around even more sliding my hands upward and downward until I felt the first kick. They were growing fast. I thought to myself as the kicks grew more intense and frequent.

Rei laid back her face entirely red flushed mouth open drooling on the bed. I smiled as it was an incredible hot angle to see her. Her moans became louder as I slid my hands harder into her belly. At that moment I suddenly felt a surge of pleasure rush through the tip of my cock and down to the shaft spreading like electricity through my entire body.

I threw my head back and moved my hands down to the neck of my cock and began furiously rubbing up and down. “So good,” I exclaimed. With every movement of my hands against my shaft it felt like a surge of electricity was shooting through me. I heard her screaming I wasn’t sure if it was pleasure or not but her belly was growing. The kicks were growing stronger and harder they felt... amazing.

I had to shoot my load and I had to shoot at that moment. I jerked even quicker falling back entirely on the bed my view now only of Rei who was above me with her head up moaning to the ceiling. Her breasts bounced up and down wildly with each stroke I made. While massive bulges appeared where each of my kids was kicking out from inside of her.

My heart raced I wanted to cum so bad. I wanted to shoot. This feeling was absolutely amazing as I’ve never been blinded so much by sex before. I watched as cum began to dribble out of Rei’s mouth pouring down Rei’s neck down her breasts I could feel it land on my toned stomach, but I knew I was now here near to cumming.

Damn the fleshlight this was where it was at. I didn’t need it apparently. I laughed quietly to myself as my heart rate grew even faster my thoughts going thousands of miles an hour I couldn’t remember everything going through my head even if I tried. All I knew was jerk. All I knew was pleasure. A pleasure that was growing with every single moment that I rose my hands against my massive shaft and lowered them.

If I were to try to remember some of the thoughts that rushed through my head was how much I was in control of Rei. How much she belonged to me. How she was being forced to have my children how she was forced to hold my cum. How she was going to always be mine and more than all that even though she is forced through all this... this was what she wanted. She wanted to be my cock. She wanted to be mine. Over anyone else, she chose me and that was more than enough to cause me to jerk and yell out in sudden pleasure while her stomach bloated to the maximum shooting globs of cum into the air. It splat against the ceiling it landed all over me it was amazing, to say the least.

I looked down at her belly which was entirely inflated. She was going to have babies very soon. They were still there even after our intense session I could tell by the bulges they made as they kicked and squirmed inside of her. Inside of us. I should say. Rei was a part of me now and she'll always be a part of me.

"Sorry." I said quietly, "I don't know what came over me." I said with a quiet laugh looking up at her.

"Don't apologize." She said. "That was great." She said, "Because of that the babies really aren't too bad anymore. You really know how to get a girl's mind off things. She said tilting her head and flashing me that same cute smile that she had given me so many times before.

I smiled back laying backward on the bed. "We got some cleaning to do," I said with a chuckle.

"I don't think we'll be able to get around too much with us about to give birth." She said laying down on my body. I could feel her warmth combine with mine it was comforting, to say the least. "I can get used to this," I said quietly feeling the kicks in her belly against mine.

"Me too." She said smiling. "Any ideas what you're going to name them?" She questioned.

"No clue," I said with a laugh.

"None at all?" She asked running her hand through my hair.

"None at all," I said with a laugh closing my eyes and feeling her hand against my head. It felt loving.

"Are they all going to be clones of you?" I asked her.

"No they won't," She explained further, "You and I made them together it's like cloning but we're getting the best of both worlds Our children will all be different. Some may be boys. Some may be girls."

"I like the idea of having a son," I said smiling.

"Of course. And I love the idea of having a daughter and raising her in a way that she knew that she'd never have to make a choice that put as much pressure on me that broke me. I want to raise a girl that will live her life unbroken." She smiled at that thought.

I returned the smile, "Then we'll have to teach the boys to protect her then."

"I like that idea. Five boys. One girl. All her brothers keeping her safe from the world. Protecting her from the pressure that comes with the cruelty of living."

“We don’t have to talk about cruelty right now. I said with a smile. “Right now we just need to breathe and take our time to bring them into the world... and I can tell it’s going to be soon isn’t it?” I questioned I couldn’t imagine her belly growing any larger.

“Very soon.”

This was how our first three days together went. We shortly fell asleep after that. We knew what we were going to be awoken by but we didn’t care we were happy because we were together forever. Linked in a way even greater than what a wedding band could do. We were linked in a way that even if we wanted to we could never leave each other not if we ever wanted to, but it was comforting, to say the least, that we couldn’t even entertain the thought of being alone. It’s crazy to think that this story started only a few days before me not know Rei now I can’t imagine my life without her. I’m glad she chose me. I’m glad she stalked me. I’m glad that this was the way things have happened because truthfully I wouldn’t have had it any other way.
