

"The shades of crystal blue and the beautiful scenery of Krista....

A short girl stood trembling behind a statue as she created the illusion happening in front of her, she was distraught, she was afraid, she was terrified.

Why did she propose this in the first place?

"...They were beautiful because I was with Ark. Everything was shining."

Her heart was beating a thousand times a second, she could feel as if it was going to burst out of her chest, it would be a nice feeling, if she didn't know beforehand what was going to happen.

An uncomfortable feeling ran through her whole body, she felt strange.

"For the first time, I felt the loneliness of being without you, Ark."

It was an unpleasant feeling. She changed her mind; she didn't want to do this anymore.

It didn't feel...right.

She was exhausted, she felt like throwing up, her head was burning and the world was spinning.

"...I want to be with you Ark, just like before."

She wanted to call for help, but in the attempt, she lost her balance, falling backwards, she could hear an unpleasant sound inside her head, she didn't feel anything, she didn't like it at all.

She could hear something in the distance, someone was calling her. But she couldn't answer, she was sleepy, she wants to be left to rest, can't you see she has been working a lot lately?

Yes... rest, it's a nice idea.

And then, everything became dark.

Mei-lin felt heavy and tired, when she regained consciousness the first thing, she felt was...discomfort, when she tried to open her eyes a great fatigue came over her, as well as a great pain in her abdomen, she moaned in response to the pain.

But then, all the pain stopped and anguish was wrapped in a warm feeling of security, she couldn't figure out what it was, but she didn't want it to stop either.

She just relaxed, letting that pleasant feeling take her over completely.

[...]

"Aahhh!!!"

"Mei-Lin!"

She woke up screaming, startling and startling Ark, who was beside her, the necromancer girl was on a bed in a room, most likely a hotel room, covered by some sheets.

Mei-Lin looked around a little disoriented, only for Ark to take her hand and calm her down, once the necromancer cleared her mind, she focused her attention to her companion.

"I, I remember we were at the festival...enjoying the food...the rides...I made an illusion and then-" The girl's story was interrupted by Ark.

"You abruptly fainted."

"...What happened?"

"Intoxication, one of the watermelons you ate was rotten" Said the boy, hearing that, Mei-lin's face turned red and putting her fingers together embarrassedly she only said.

"Oh..."

"See...the doctor said that the rapid development of the parasite is due to the use of your illusory abilities, at first we didn't know what it was, so we kept you in quarantine, fortunately after some...trouble, we managed to come up with the antidote."

The embarrassment of her falling prey to simple indigestion was ignored when she heard the boy's concerned tone.

"You were unconscious for a few days, so I took care of you while you were healing, the doctor also said that once you woke up, you needed to consume more vitamins blah blah blah blah blah."

Ark was still talking, but Mei-Lin stopped paying attention to him when she heard the words "take care of you", which echoed in her head for a small amount of time.

Her and Ark, alone in a room? The thought was too euphoric for the necromancer girl, different scenarios started to pop up in her head, some very formal and romantic...and others....

"Mei-Lin, are you okay?" The boy's concerned tone caused the girl to react to his call.

"Your face is completely red; do you want us to call the doctor so he can-"

"NO!-, I mean, it won't be necessary" Mei-Lin interrupted him, Ark didn't seem very convinced, but noticing her friend's discomfort, she didn't want to touch the subject.

An uncomfortable silence took over the room, Mei-Lin decided to remember more of what happened, she had planned to confess to Ark that same night, but to make sure that he loved her, she decided to use an illusion of what he loves the most...

She doesn't remember much, if anything, of what happened, only small fragments and a pain in her abdomen. But whatever Ark had chosen, it wasn't her, that was for sure, besides, she had no way of finding out, and she didn't have the courage to ask him directly, the festival was over and he would surely want to continue his adventure as soon as possible.

All those thoughts lowered her mood, and Ark noticed it.

"Mei-Lin, there are still things I haven't told you" The boy began, catching the girl's attention.

"When we found out that the watermelon was rotten, we started to check all the other fruit, since the merchant swore that the day before they were in perfect condition, it turns out that someone had poisoned the fruit and water of the village, so the festival was postponed until we found the culprit."

It took a few seconds for the girl's brain to process all the new information, and when it clicked, a big smile formed on her face.

"So the festival continues?!" She asked cheerfully almost standing up in bed, but then realized that in order to go to the festival again, she had to invite Ark...and although she doesn't remember what exactly she did, the illusion she had planned to do was something....

"Mei-Lin, would you like to go to the festival with me?" said Ark.

The necromancer girl blinked once, twice, three times.

"Ah?" She said cocking her head to the side.

"That's a no?" Questioned the boy.

Mei-Lin's brain began to reboot, and when it was complete and she analyzed the information, she quickly said an.

"Of course!" she said lunging towards the boy hugging him, causing him to lose his balance and they fell to the ground.

Ark was about to scold her until he noticed his friend hugging him tightly and felt his shoulder getting wet. He rested his hand on her head.

"It's good to have you back, Mei-Lin."

After Mei-Lin unburdened herself and Ark told her more of his adventures, he left her alone so she could recover to rest optimally, Mei-Lin insisted that it wasn't necessary and that she preferred his company, but the boy refused, saying that she needed to rest more, and that she had to talk to the doctor about her recovery.

Before leaving, Ark commented that if he was hungry, he could go to the buffet in the hotel restaurant.

As if her stomach heard, it growled and demanded food, if what Ark said was true, he had not eaten for a long time. She got up from the bed and started stretching, then looked for some clean clothes for a shower.

As she showered, she made a compilation of what had happened a few hours ago, Ark had helped her, and not only that, he stayed for her and only her.

Was he genuinely caring about her? He could have left her alone in the doctor's care if he wanted to, couldn't he?

Besides...

She looked down at her naked body and lacked the assets that a woman of her age should have.

I was 19 years old for God's sake! My body is still that of a little girl!!!! What kind of demon genes are these!

She had never worried so much about her appearance before until she met Ark and saw him looking at other girls more developed than her.

"Ahhgggg!" Mei-Lin complained in frustration, her plan to propose to Ark had not only been foiled, but she was also made a fool of by a stupid rotten fruit.

GROWWW

Her thoughts were interrupted when her stomach growled in demand for food, she really was starving, she quickly got out of the shower, got dressed and left her room, she walked down the stairs until she reached the area where Ark had mentioned to her.

The waiter approached her asking if she was lost, although this irritated her, she kept control of her actions and told him her name, telling him she was a guest of the hotel, the man verified her identity and let her in.

The moment she entered Mei-Lin could smell the different and appetizing dishes, she didn't take a second and quickly went for a plate to serve herself a big mountain of food and go to the center table.

Once she sat down, she began to quickly disappear all the food she had brought, making it disappear from her mouth at a great speed, reaching the point of not chewing it, but swallowing it completely, the latter provoked some looks from the people around her.

"Hmnm, what a dirty girl" Mei-lin could hear the voice of a blonde girl at a table near hers, without stopping to eat she continued to listen.

"I know this is buffed, but does she have to eat like a pig?"

"Who is this girl and why is she eating more than a grown man? Where are her parents?"

That last comment almost made Mei-Lin make a scene, but after thinking about the trouble it would cause Ark she dismissed the idea....

A few minutes later the women left the place, for some reason Mei-Lin also left on her way to her room, curiously one of the women, the blonde who insulted her resided on the same floor as her.

Mei-lin followed the group from afar not wanting to be bothered again by the women, until she heard something that caught her attention.

"Remember the girl from before? Did you know she's a match for the handsome orange-haired boy?"

"No way! Really?"

"Yeah, I saw how the guy stayed in the girl's room all day! He lives on my same floor!"

"Whoaa and to think that handsome boy was a degenerate, he seemed kind and caring, such a shame."

"Right? Shouldn't we warn people about this? That boy could be dangerous"

"Hmmm, maybe..."

Mei-Lin clenched her fists when she heard that.

Not only are they making fun of her and her stature, but they're ALSO bringing Ark into this...! And all because of her....

"Tch!"

Fucking bitches. You'll see...

[...]

Once they said goodbye in the hallway the blonde girl walked into her room, closing the door behind her, she sighed and stretched her arms as she made her way to the bed, she was exhausted.

"..."

Without a word she lay down on her bed thinking about what she would do next, she planned to sleep until it was time to leave with her friends for the festival.

"Hmm...Oh, this place has some hot springs, doesn't it?" With that idea in mind, she got up and got her things ready, she grabbed a towel and left the room questioning if she should ask her friends, she quickly dismissed the idea, now she just wanted to relax.

She walked through the corridors until she reached the bathroom, curiously she didn't find anyone on the way, nor inside the bathroom, maybe because it was early? She did not know.

She walked through the bathroom to the dressing room, undressed, took her towel and entered the showers, where she cleaned herself properly, once she finished, she went to the hot springs.

Slowly she lowered her foot into the water, feeling it strangely a bit slimy, but nice and warm, she had never been in a hot spring, it was supposed to be like that, wasn't it?

She kept going down, the warm sensation traveled down her thighs to her hips, her abdomen was engulfed by the water, the blonde woman let out a moan of satisfaction at the warm sensation.

But...she wanted more, her body reacted on its own and continued to go deeper into the warm waters.

"Ahhh!" The blonde moaned as the warmth of the water cover her breasts, the sensation was strangely pleasurable, she kept sinking.

Her head was engulfed by the water quality, under the water you could barely see, strangely everything was dark.

She continued to sink, letting the current of the water take her into the depths, the woman did not wonder why she did not feel the pressure of the water or why the water did not enter her lungs, she simply let herself go.

And in a matter of seconds, she reached the floor of the depths where she lay down in a fetal position and let the warmth of the waters cuddle her.

"Ahhhh!-Shit! That was glorious!-BUUUUUURRRRRRRRRRRRRRRPPPPPPPPP!!!" Said and burped Mei-Lin savoring the aftertaste of the burp, with both hands she hugged the big belly she was on.

"Sabias delicious bitch!"

It took a lot of effort and concentration, but she was able to manage to make a great illusion that completely fooled the girl into believing she walked out of the room all the way to the hot springs, she even managed to make her believe she was entering them! And he had to admit, that girl was sexy, the taste of her thighs and breasts was glorious!

"Hmm!!!" Suddenly the belly stopped being motionless and started to move.

"Ohh, looks like you're finally awake, bitch! Enjoy your relaxing bath!" The necromancer teased as she felt the girl inside her begin to struggle violently, the strokes instead of hurting her caused her pleasure, giving her a massaging sensation.

"Mmmm! How good it feels -
BBBBBBBbooOO
OO
OOO!"

Mei-Lin continued massaging her belly until the food coma took over, falling unconscious on her belly.

GROWWW!

BUURGLE

The gurgles of her belly cradled her, the necromancer girl slept peacefully as her stomach ruptured and melted its contents, while her intestines received the remains and absorbed the nutrients.

"..."

Ark found himself waiting at the entrance of the festival, it was almost dusk and the stalls and attractions would be closing in a few more hours.

"Has something happened to him?" he said worriedly out loud looking at the ground, a few hours ago he went to his room which was empty, only with a note from Mei-Lin dissent:

"I had some mishaps, so I went out to buy some clothes, meet me at the festival entrance.

- Mei-Lin"

Ark has been waiting patiently since then, if she didn't arrive in the next few minutes, he would go get her.

"Sorry for being late!"

He heard a cheerful voice he recognized, he looked up, only to be met with a big surprise.

"M-Mei-Lin?!!!" Ark asked stunned leaving his jaw hanging, in front of him stood what he would describe as a teenage version of his friend.

Previously Mei-Lin was almost up to his shoulders, very barely, now he is now at least his same height, her boyish face is now more in keeping with her age, and not only that, in general her undeveloped body was now endowed with new assets, her flat chest was now endowed with two round mounds, which are squeezed by her garment, also her butt and thighs expanded, giving her a more mature shape.

The first thing that came to Ark's mind was that it was an illusion made by her, but that was dismissed when Mei-Lin wrapped her new breasts in her arms.

"Come on Ark! The rides are waiting for us!" Said the girl cheerfully dragging Ark towards the festival.

Mei-Lin had the time of her life, had the time of her life, had the time of her life and enjoyed Ark's furtive glances at her body throughout their date! She bets she still doesn't believe she's not an illusion...at least not entirely.

The only part of her body that is an illusion is her flat abdomen, since she hasn't really finished fully digesting the blonde yet, so one has a small belly.

As they walked in search of an attraction or food stall, Mei-Lin casually began to massage her small belly, impatient to live that experience again.

'Maybe I should visit that bitch's friends later'
